

Summer Legislative Issues CONFERENCE

JULY 16-17, 2012 | WASHINGTON, D.C.

The American Association of Airport Executives (AAAE) and the Airport Legislative Alliance (ALA) are proud to present the 2012 AAAE & ALA Summer Legislative Issues Conference to be held July 16-17, 2012 at the W Washington DC Hotel, located adjacent to the White House and moments from Capitol Hill. This annual gathering of executives, commissioners and industry leaders is the perfect opportunity to learn the latest on critical issues affecting airports and to weigh in with your elected officials during an important time in the legislative process.

Though Congress now has passed the FAA reauthorization bill (after five years of debate and 23 short-term extensions), challenges remain in securing funding for key airport priorities. The 2012 AAAE & ALA Summer Legislative Issues Conference will address the current state of play on crucial airport issues and how best to address our priorities in Washington's tough budget environment.

In addition, the 2012 AAAE & ALA Summer Legislative Issues Conference offers airport executives, commissioners and industry leaders the perfect opportunity to learn the latest on critical issues affecting airports. During the in-depth, one-day conference, attendees will hear from industry experts, congressional staff and administration officials, as well as lawmakers tasked with addressing key airport issues in Congress, through a series of panel and one-on-one discussions.
