Joint Chamber Recruiter Event 2012

Trends in Recruitment in Asia: Recruiter Event 2012

Panel of Recruiters from: Webber Fox,
Gradwell Evans, Gulf Connexions Group,
Morgan McKinley, & Robert Walters

This event is organised by the Irish Chamber

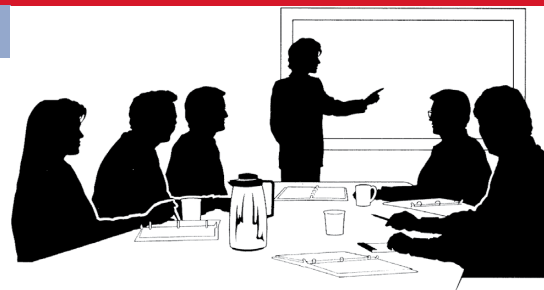

The 2012 recruitment overview event will focus on current recruitment trends in Asia. We hear of retrenchment and uncertainty in the investment banking sector. Is this true of all parts of the financial services? The increased spotlight of Europe and the US on Asia has led to increased opportunities in professional services, and also a growth of management roles in industry. So are technology, industry and the professions hot again?

We will have a panel of recruiters from some of the best firms in Hong Kong to address some of the most prominent themes and issues currently in the market. Our panelists will include:

- Mark Meenan, Client Development Manager, Webber Fox, who will host the event
- Paul Evans, Managing Director, Gradwell Evans, who will discuss the investment banking sector with an emphasis on finance and technology roles
- Derek Kenny, Director, Gulf Connexions Group, who will discuss general industry recruitment trends with a focus upon the aviation sector
- Adam Jeffes, Manager, Morgan McKinley who will discuss the investment banking and capital markets sector
- Daniel Cardon, Manager, Robert Walters, who will discuss the legal and compliance sectors

The sectors covered will include investment banking and general finance, industry (including aviation), legal and compliance.

This event will be of particular interest to you if you are thinking of moving positions, or actively looking for a new role.
