2nd Call for Papers

The Israeli Operations Research Society

ORSIS 2013 Conference

The next conference of the Israeli Operations Research Society (ORSIS) will take place on Sunday and Monday, May 19-20, 2013 at the Leonardo Hotel in Beer-Sheva. Please note that a fun evening is planned for Sunday the 19th.

Plenary lectures will be provided by Sergiu Hart from the Hebrew University and by Dorit S. Hochbaum from U. of California Berkley, as the Naor lecturer. Tutorial semi-plenaries will be provided by: Joseph Pliskin, Nicole Adler, Ron Holzman and Avy Shtub. In addition, two prizes will be presented this year: the ORSIS Prize for Excellent Work in OR and the Abraham Mehrez Prize for Excellent Work of a Student in OR.

Those wishing to present a paper at the conference are hereby invited to submit an abstract. Furthermore, those wishing to organize a session are invited to contact Gadi directly at rgadi@bgu.ac.il. To submit a paper to the conference, please send an abstract (in English) by e-mail to the conference chair at orsis2013@gmail.com. Submissions need to be received by April 20, 2013 in order to be included in the conference timetable. Let us know if you have a preference regarding the day of the presentation (i.e., Sunday or Monday). The abstract should be no longer than 500 words and should be typed in MS-Word or ASCII plain text. The abstract should include the following information.

1. Title of the talk (or poster).
2. Type of preferred presentation (lecture or poster).
3. List of authors including affiliations. Please underline the presenter name.
4. E-mail address of the presenting author.
5. Suggested classification (Supply Chain Management, Revenue Management, Health Care Management, Game Theory, Decision Analysis, Inventory Management, Scheduling, Transportation, Combinatorial Optimization, Continuous Optimization, Queuing Theory, Military OR, Simulation, Productivity Measurement etc.) which helps to group contributed papers into appropriate sessions.
