THE PHOEBE HAMANN MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship has been established through S.A.I.L. Music Camp to recognize and assist an outstanding young local musician with college expenses at the undergraduate or graduate level. The applicant must plan a career in music: in education, performance, research, or other music-related major area. Moreover, the applicant must have been a S.A.I.L. Camp participant, Intern or Honors Orchestra member. Scholarship monies will be deposited into the recipient's student account for direct application to the expenses of attending college classes through a School of Music or Music Department. The scholarship award for 2014 is $1000.00
