APPLICATION FOR TEACHER REGISTRATION

*This page has been

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Teachers Registration Board of South Australia (the Board) is established pursuant to the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 (the Act) and Teachers Registration and Standards Regulations 2005 (the Regulations). The Act and the Regulations can be accessed via the Board's website: <http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/legislation.php>

The purpose of the Act is to regulate the teaching profession in South Australia.

Pursuant to Section 20 (1) of the Act it is an offence to undertake employment as a teacher, principal or director at a school or prescribed service or provide primary or secondary education unless you are registered. (Maximum penalty $5,000)

An application for teacher registration must be made in the manner and form prescribed by legislation or approved by the Board. An application must be submitted in person or by mail. Applications submitted by fax or email will not be accepted.

The Board may require additional documentation or information and will contact you if this is the case. All documentation supplied in support of your application must be the original or a certified copy. Refer to the section 'Certification of Documents' overleaf for more information.

This paperclip symbol is used throughout the application form to indicate that original or certified documentary evidence must be provided. All required documentary evidence must be supplied with the application form.

If you hold overseas teaching qualifications, you must have all of your qualifications formally assessed by the Board before submitting an application for registration as a teacher. You will need to complete a separate application form, the 'Application for Assessment of Qualifications', and wait until you have received an assessment report from the Board before applying for teacher registration. The Application for Assessment of Qualifications form can be downloaded from the Board's website at <http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/forms.php>

An incomplete application will not be accepted and will be returned to you.

CATEGORIES OF REGISTRATION

Provisional Registration – teachers who are qualified but are not yet able to provide evidence of one year's full-time (or part-time equivalent of 200 days) satisfactory service as a teacher at a school or prescribed service in Australia or New Zealand in the last five years.

Registration – teachers who are qualified and have completed one year's full-time (or part-time equivalent of 200 days) satisfactory service as a teacher at a school or prescribed service in Australia or New Zealand in the last five years. Applicants are not eligible to apply for (full) Registration by using this application form. The only way for a teacher to be granted (full) Registration status is to initially receive Provisional Registration and then transition to (full) Registration with the Board as detailed below.

Transitioning from Provisional Registration to (full) Registration is not an automatic process. If you hold Provisional Registration, you can apply for (full) Registration after successfully completing one year's full-time (or part-time equivalent of 200 days) satisfactory service as a teacher at a school or prescribed service in Australia or New Zealand, and lodge an Application to Transition from Provisional to (full) Registration. You must meet the requirements as outlined on the Transition from Provisional to (full) Registration form. An application form can be downloaded from the Board's website at <http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/forms.php>

In some cases, the Board may impose conditions on registration. This would be determined after consideration of the application by the Board pursuant to Part 5, Section 24 of the Act.

PROOF OF IDENTITY FOR TEACHER REGISTRATION

You must include a certified copy of your full Birth Certificate and a document containing photographic identification (i.e. a passport or driver's licence). You are also required to include certified copies of all name changes (e.g. marriage certificate, decree nisi or deed poll). You may also use these documents to satisfy the Board's '100 point check' (201) requirements (see Page 2 of the National Police History Check Consent Form for more information).

CERTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS

All required documents other than the original must be certified copies. If all documents have not been correctly certified, the application will not be accepted and will be returned to you.

Copies of original documents must be certified as a "true and accurate" copy of the original by either: a Justice of the Peace, a Commissioner for Taking Affidavits (e.g. Solicitor, Barrister), or a Notary Public.

Each document submitted for certification must be a photocopy with the original document available for sighting at the time of certification. In some circumstances the Board may require presentation of an original document.

TRANSLATION OF DOCUMENTS INTO ENGLISH

All documents in a language other than English lodged as part of an application for teacher registration must be submitted attached to official certified English translations.

English translations undertaken in Australia will only be accepted if completed by a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd. (NAATI). English translations undertaken overseas must have been completed by an officially accredited or licensed translator or an officially recognised organisation.

All applicants must have satisfactorily completed a Families SA approved 7-hour Mandatory Notification Training course (e.g. Child Safe Environments – Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect or Responding to Abuse and Neglect - Education and Care). Please note: Generally, employers require applicants for employment to have undertaken the Responding to Abuse and Neglect - Education and Care course, which is delivered by specific providers, as the training is multidisciplinary as well as being tailored to a specific service context. For further information, refer to the website at <http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/mandatory-training>

The 7-hour Mandatory Notification training course required for teacher registration must be undertaken in person in South Australia. 7. DECLARATIONS - FITNESS AND PROPRIETY

The object of the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 (the Act) is to establish and maintain a teacher registration system and professional standards for teachers to safeguard the public interest in there being a teaching profession whose members are competent educators and fit and proper persons to have the care of children.

A national police history check is one measure used by the Board to determine the fitness and propriety of applicants. For information relating to national police history checks refer to Section 9.

Section 22 (2) of the Act states:

- (2) An applicant for registration must –
- (a) consent to the conduct by the Teachers Registration Board of a police history check relating to the applicant; and
 - (b) if the Board so requires for the purpose of determining whether the applicant's capacity to teach is seriously impaired by an illness or disability affecting the applicant's behaviour or competence as a teacher –
 - (i) submit to a medical examination by a medical practitioner selected by the applicant from a panel of medical practitioners nominated by the Board; and
 - (ii) provide, or authorise the medical practitioner to provide, a report on the results of the medical examination to the Board; and

A registered teacher must notify the Board in writing within 14 days if:

- charged with or convicted of an offence/s of a kind specified in Section 7.8 of the application form. (For the purpose of the Act, charged is defined as a complaint or information filed in any court).
- dismissed or resigned from employment as a practising teacher in response to or following allegations of unprofessional conduct. For the purpose of the Act, unprofessional conduct means -
 - (a) a contravention of the Act or the repealed provisions; or
 - (b) a contravention of a condition of registration as a teacher under this Act or the repealed provisions; or
 - (c) incompetence; or
 - (d) disgraceful or improper conduct.
- dismissed or resigned from any employment in response to or following allegations of improper conduct in relation to a child.

All matters are considered on an individual basis using the following general guidelines.

- Child protection implications, age and vulnerability
- Relevance in a school or pre-school teaching environment
- The gravity and nature of convictions
- Circumstances surrounding the offence(s), whether alcohol, drugs or a weapon was involved
- The harm to any victim including injury or loss
- Adverse impact on the teaching profession
- Total police history
- Severity of sentence imposed
- Length of time since offence, any rehabilitation
- Age at time of offence(s) e.g. adult or juvenile
- Evidence of the applicant's good character since offence committed
- Whether offence has been decriminalised
- Whether found guilty 'without conviction'
- Whether penalty was restricted only to a fine
- Personal circumstances at the time of offending.

You can discuss any issue relating to fitness and propriety matters by contacting the Board's Investigation Unit, telephone +61 8 8226 5984.

Inquiries and Disciplinary Action

The Teachers Registration Board may, on complaint by the Registrar or of its own motion, hold an Inquiry to determine whether the conduct of a teacher constitutes proper cause for disciplinary action. There is proper cause for disciplinary action if a teacher has improperly obtained registration as a teacher; or has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct; is not a fit and proper person to be a registered teacher; or the teacher's registration has been suspended, cancelled or otherwise withdrawn by another teacher regulatory authority.

Overseas Criminal History Record Checks

If you have resided in a country other than Australia for more than 12 continuous months during the past 10 years, when over the age of 18 years, you must provide either original or certified copies of national criminal history record checks from those countries issued within the last 12 months.

These checks must reflect all names by which you have ever been known.

The Board will only accept certain national overseas criminal history record checks for registration purposes. Applicants should therefore refer to the instructions for obtaining acceptable checks which are available on the Board's website at <http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/ochrc>.

8. STATUTORY DECLARATION

Your signature must be witnessed by either:

- a Justice of the Peace, or
- a Notary Public, or
- a Commissioner for Taking Affidavits
(e.g. Solicitor, Barrister)

Provision of false or misleading information

You must certify that the personal information provided on the application form is correct. If it is subsequently discovered that you have made a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular, whether by reason of the inclusion or omission of any particular; in any information provided, this can lead to prosecution under the Oaths Act 1936 and to refusal or cancellation of registration pursuant to the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004.

In addition, pursuant to Sections 54 and 55 of the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004, a person must not make a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular (whether by reason of the inclusion or omission of any particular) in any information provided under this Act, and that a person who by fraud or any other dishonest means procures registration for himself or herself, or for another person, is guilty of an offence. Maximum penalty: $10 000.

9. CONSENT FOR NATIONAL POLICE HISTORY CHECK

General Information

The Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 requires the Teachers Registration Board of South Australia (the Board) to determine whether you are a fit and proper person to be registered as a teacher. To assist in making this assessment, the Board requires a National Police History Check to be conducted on your application.

Unless statutory obligations require otherwise, the information provided on this form will not be used without your prior consent for any purpose other than in relation to the assessment of your suitability to be registered as a teacher.

Information received through these processes is stored in a secure personal file.

The Department of Premier and Cabinet Circular No. PC012 (re-issued 30 July 1992) known as the "Information Privacy Principles Instruction" is complied with.

Should you not consent to the Board obtaining a National Police History Record Check, your application cannot be processed.

Proof of Identity for National Police History Check

To comply with the Board's contractual arrangements as an accredited CrimTrac Agency, you must provide certified copies of documentary evidence to prove your identity sufficient to satisfy the '100 point' check (201). This must include one primary document e.g. birth certificate, current passport or expired passport (not cancelled) that was current within the preceding 2 years or citizenship certificate and one secondary document e.g. current driver's licence, employee identification card, Centrelink card or student identification card. Refer to http://www.trb.sa.edu.au/pdf/Info-Sheet_Proof-of-Identity.pdf for a list of acceptable documents for the '100 point' check.

All documentation must be attached to the National Police History Record Check Consent form and submitted with your application for teacher registration.

For further information contact the staff of the Board's Investigation Unit on +61 8 8226 5984.

National Police History Check

A National Police History Check is an integral part of the assessment of your suitability to hold teacher registration.

Information extracted from this form will be forwarded by the Board to the CrimTrac Agency and other Australian Police Agencies¹. By signing the form you are providing your consent to these agencies:

- (a) disclosing police history information that pertains to you from their own records to the Board, and/or
- (b) accessing their records to obtain police history information that in turn will be disclosed to the Board.

Such police history information may include outstanding charges, and criminal convictions/findings of guilt recorded against you that may be disclosed according to the laws of the relevant jurisdiction and, in the absence of any laws governing the release of that information, according to the relevant jurisdiction's information release policy.

It is usual practice for your personal information to be disclosed to Australian Police Agencies to use for their respective law enforcement purposes including the investigation of any outstanding criminal offences.

Spent Convictions Schemes

The information which can be made available about an individual's police history may vary between Australian jurisdictions and will depend on any laws or policies relating to "spent convictions" schemes. The aim of these schemes, where they exist, is to prevent discrimination on the basis of certain previous convictions once a waiting period has passed and provided the individual has not re-offended during this period. Convictions considered "spent" will not be included in a police history report unless the category of employment or purpose of the application is considered exempt from the workings of the scheme.

South Australia

SAPOL is bound by the South Australian Spent Convictions Act 2009 when determining what information to release. Under the Spent Convictions Act 2009, it is an offence to release information regarding the convictions of a person if those convictions are deemed to be 'spent' under the Act.

A spent conviction is one that cannot be disclosed or taken into consideration for any purpose. Eligible convictions become spent following a ten year conviction and proven offence-free period for adults and a five year conviction and proven offence-free period for juveniles.

The Spent Convictions Act 2009 defines a conviction as:

- A formal finding of guilt by a Court
- A finding by a Court that an offence has been proved

This means that court hearings with the outcome 'without conviction' will be released as they are a formal finding of guilt.

There are certain convictions which can never be spent. These include but are not limited to:

- Convictions for sex offences
- Convictions where a sentence is imposed of more than 12 months imprisonment for an adult, or 24 months imprisonment for a juvenile

Intelligence-type information is not released.

Schedule 1 of the Spent Convictions Act 2009 sets out a number of exceptions to the rule where spent convictions can be released. Some examples of this include:

- The care of children
- The care of vulnerable people (including the aged and persons with a disability, illness or impairment)
- Activities associated with statutory character tests for licensing

The Teachers Registration Board of South Australia is one of the organisations authorised / legislated to receive all convictions and non-convictions (i.e. including but not limited to withdrawn, acquitted and dismissed court outcomes) for the screening of teachers under the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004.

The Spent Convictions Act 2009 can be viewed on the internet at: <http://www.legislation.sa.gov.au>

Other Australian Police Agencies

Where a police history record with another Australian Police Agency has been obtained, any relevant legislation (and/or release policy) affecting that police agency will be applied before that record is released. Under various pieces of Commonwealth, State and Territory legislation an individual has the right, in particular circumstance or for a particular purpose, to not disclose certain convictions/findings of guilt. Such convictions (widely referred to as "spent" or "rehabilitated" convictions) will not be released. Please contact individual police services directly for further information about their release policies and any legislation that affects them.

Provision of False or Misleading Information

You are asked to certify that the personal information you have provided on this form is correct. If it is subsequently discovered, for example as a result of a check of police records, that you have provided false or misleading information, you may be assessed as being unsuitable to be registered as a teacher.

You should note that the existence of a police history record does not mean that you will be automatically assessed as being unsuitable to be registered as a teacher. Each case will be assessed on its merit, as such it is in your best interests to answer the declarations on the application form truthfully and to provide "full and frank" details in a letter to the Registrar.

CONSENT FOR TRANSFER OF FAMILIES SA CHILD PROTECTION INFORMATION

Reference Number:

The primary object of the Teachers Registration and Standards Act 2004 is to establish a teacher registration system and professional standards for teachers to safeguard the public interest in there being a teaching profession whose members are competent educators and fit and proper persons to have the care of children. The Teachers Registration Board of South Australia (the Board) must have the welfare and best interests of children as its primary consideration in the performance of its functions.

Every child has a right to be safe from harm at all times. The well being and best interests of children are the responsibility of the entire community. As members of the wider community, we must act to ensure that every environment where children are present is safe. In this context the assessment of relevant child protection information is one measure used by the Board to ensure registered teachers are fit and proper persons to have the care of children.

As a matter of policy all applicants for teacher registration are required to undergo an assessment against child protection information held by Families SA, Department for Education and Child Development (DECD). Relevant child protection information is released to the Board by authorisation of the Chief Executive DECD pursuant to Section 58 (3) (c) of the Children's Protection Act 1993.

Your full name, all names you have been known by, and your date of birth will be securely and confidentially forwarded to Families SA.

Assessment of any relevant information received will be made in conjunction with National Police History and other information supplied as a result of your responses to the questions below and the declaration questions in Section 7 of your application. A preliminary assessment will be undertaken by the Board in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

You are asked to respond to the following questions

1. To your knowledge have you ever been the subject of a child protection investigation by Families SA or other authority or organisation where you have been determined to be the person responsible for causing harm? Yes No
2. Have you ever been, or are you currently, subject to any restrictions regarding your contact with children in any professional, volunteer or personal capacity? Yes No
These restrictions would include: supervised access with children, and agreement not to see children alone in a professional or volunteer capacity, a court order prohibiting you from seeing or contacting children, or removing children from your care. A shared custody arrangement regarding your children would not fall within these restrictions.

If you have answered YES to any of the above questions, please provide written details of the circumstances relating to the matter in a separate envelope addressed to the Registrar and marked "Confidential". All matters are considered on an individual basis. You may be required to provide further documentation or participate in an interview.

CONSENT

You are asked to provide your consent below. If consent is not provided your application for registration cannot be processed.

I _____ give my consent for the Teachers
(FULL NAME)

Registration Board of South Australia to provide my personal information to Families SA, Department for Education and Child Development for the purposes of assessing my fitness and propriety for registration as a teacher.
