CLAIM FOR REASSESSMENT EXCLUSION FOR TRANSFER BETWEEN PARENT AND CHILD

Revenue and Taxation Code, Section 63.1

IMPORTANT: In order to qualify for this exclusion, a claim form must be completed and signed by the transferors and a transferee and filed with the Assessor. A claim form is timely filed if it is filed within three years after the date of purchase or transfer, or prior to the transfer of the real property to a third party, whichever is earlier. If a claim form has not been filed by the date specified in the preceding sentence, it will be timely if filed within six months after the date of mailing of a notice of supplemental or escape assessment for this property. If a claim is not timely filed, the exclusion will be granted beginning with the calendar year in which you file your claim. Complete all of Sections A, B, and C and answer each question or your claim may be denied. Proof of eligibility, including a copy of the transfer document, trust, or will, may be required. Please note:

- 1. This exclusion only applies to transfers that occur on or after November 6, 1986;
- 2. In order to qualify, the real property must be transferred from parents to their children or children to their parents;
- 3. If you do not complete and return this form, it may result in this property being reassessed.
- 4. California law provides, with certain limitations, that a "change in ownership" does not include the purchase or transfer of:
  - The principal residence between parents and children, and/or
  - The first $1,000,000 of other real property between parents and children.

NOTE: Effective January 1, 2009, Revenue and Taxation Code Section 63.1(j) allows a county board of supervisors to authorize a one-time processing fee of not more than $175 to recover costs incurred by the county assessor due to the failure of an eligible transferee to file a claim for the parent-child change in ownership exclusion after two written requests have been sent to an eligible transferee by the county assessor.

REASSESSMENT EXCLUSION: TRANSFERS BETWEEN PARENTS AND CHILDREN

The law (Revenue & Taxation Code Section 63.1) allows the Assessor to exclude from reassessment certain transfers between parents and children.

To avoid reassessment and additional bills, the form should be filed within 30 days of receipt. It will still be considered timely filed if it is received within three (3) years of the transfer date, prior to a third party transfer, or within six (6) months of the date of notice of Supplemental Assessment. If the form is filed after the allowable time period and the property has not transferred, relief may still be granted but only beginning with the calendar year in which the claim is filed.

A principal residence may be transferred regardles of value and has been defined as one which qualified on the transfer date for a homeowner's exemption in the name of the transferor. In addition, parents and children may transfer up to $1,000,000 assessed value of other real property.

For additional information regarding this exclusion, please call 468-2707.
