

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Embassy of Kenya
Visa Section

Dear Visa Officer,

This letter is in support of _____'s application for a visa for entry into Kenya. John Snow, Inc. (JSI) implements the AIDSTAR-One Project on behalf of the United States Agency for International Development. The AIDSTAR-One Project and Counseling and Testing Technical Working Group will hold a three-day consultation to help shape Home Based Counseling and Testing (HBCT) processes and tools so that other programs can successfully implement HBCT as a strategy. This consultation will be held in Nairobi, Kenya, from November 3-5, 2009. Participants will engage in a range of activities, including break out sessions and group work which will provide attendees with the opportunity to increase their knowledge and skills.

_____ has accepted our invitation to participate in this conference, and has been approved by the AIDSTAR-One's Arlington, Virginia office. _____ will be covering for all of _____'s expenses regarding meals, lodging, and incidentals while they are participating in the training.

The Conference will be held at:

Nairobi Serena Hotel
Kenyatta Avenue
P.O. Box 46302
00100 Nairobi
Kenya
Tel.: (254) 733282200/1/2, 733282283, 733282292
Fax: (254 20) 2725184
Website: <http://www.serenahotels.com/kenya/nairobi/home.asp>

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if you need further information.

Sincerely,

Vincent J Wong
Technical Advisor, HIV Counseling and Testing
Global Health Bureau / Office of HIV-AIDS
600 13th Street, NW, Suite 660
Washington DC 20005