

— Program description —

The area of child custody and support is often contentious and emotionally disruptive for parents and children alike. This program will provide the practitioner with expert instruction in such areas as child support, temporary orders, school assignment, custody evaluations and more.

— What is a Webcast? —

Just like a live seminar, you attend a Webcast at its scheduled day and time, only you do it from a Web page on your computer. Webcasts enable you to watch and hear the speakers in real time, and access slides and seminar handout materials—all on your computer!

To register for a live Webcast, go to www.ohiobar.org/webcast.

Please note that you can only register for Webcasts online.

Important: To receive CLE credit you must attend the Webcast program in its entirety. The Supreme Court of Ohio does not grant partial credit for Webcast CLE seminars. Under Supreme Court of Ohio rules, you can only earn self-study credit for Webcast programs. Please be aware that the Supreme Court limits self-study credit to six hours per biennium.
