Creative and Performing Arts experiences provide young people with opportunities to nurture their passions and enhance their social and communication skills.

Campers build self-esteem, concentration, and confidence that help them in the performing arts, in school, and in life.

Part of Muhlenberg's Summer Music Theatre festival, Camp Imagine is guided by a team of the College's most talented music, dance, and theatre majors and young alumni. Our teaching artists are experienced, professionally trained, and supervised.

Class sizes are limited!
Please apply by June 1.

Have fun, explore your talents,
and make great friends!

Camp Imagine is a unique summer arts program for middle school students with an interest in the performing arts.

- Experience creative activities in drama, vocal expression and movement.
- Learn and create every day with Muhlenberg College theatre, dance, and music majors and young alumni!
- Join a dynamic ensemble of young performers! Share your unique talents and work together to create a world premiere Showcase Performance!
- Play and perform in Muhlenberg's world-class studios and theatres.
