

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2015-2016 ACADEMIC YEAR

This scholarship application is for scholarships administered through the Department of Architecture, and for scholarships awarded to the Department by the Texas Architectural Foundation (TAF) and the Dallas Construction Specifications Institute (CSI). Information about scholarships and eligibility requirements are listed on the College of Architecture web site and in the College of Architecture Scholarship Directory.

In addition to those scholarships awarded by the Department of Architecture, scholarships are offered through the College of Architecture, the American Institute of Architects, and the University. Students are encouraged to contact these sources for applications and deadline information. Please note that all competitive scholarships awarded by TAF, Dallas CSI and other external organizations no longer carry a tuition waiver.

Information about scholarships and eligibility requirements are listed on the College of Architecture web. Students should note that the issuance of a scholarship does not ensure the awarding of a scholarship for subsequent academic years. In addition, there is no guarantee that the amount of a scholarship awarded in one academic year will be of an equal or greater value the following academic year.

The criteria for each scholarship are listed online. <http://www.arch.tamu.edu/undergraduate/scholarships/2/>

Applications are due in the Department of Architecture Office by 5:00 pm, Friday, December 12, 2014. Students who have applied for scholarships by the stated deadline date must submit all papers, proposals and portfolios to the Department of Architecture Office by 5:00 pm, Tuesday, January 20, 2015.

Confirmation

I understand that the information requested in this application is to determine the applicant's qualifications, and that it is reserved for confidential use by the Universities and the Texas Architectural Foundation Directors (as may be applicable), and I release it for that purpose.

Certification

I further certify that the information supplied in this application is accurate, and I understand that making inaccurate or false statements could disqualify my application. If a scholarship is awarded to me, I promise to use the grant for the continuation of my architectural education at Texas A&M University, and to comply with requirements of the grant (reports, etc).

Completing the Scholarship Application

Of the several scholarships that may be considered with respect to this application, each usually has its own criteria. Some scholarships may list either financial need or scholastic standing as the most important consideration. Some may have other or additional criteria, such as the hometown of student.

It is important that all questions are answered with some thought and clarity. The Foundation selection committee is comprised of practicing architects. You must convey your qualifications, desire, and passion in written comments. Questions are open-ended so that you may express your unique qualities and circumstances.

I have read, understand, and have complied with the information, instructions, and certification contained in and associated with this scholarship application. I further certify to the best of my knowledge, information and belief that this application is a complete and accurate representation of my financial need, scholastic standing and other personal circumstances and career objectives.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

2015-2016 ACADEMIC YEAR

Conditions of the Scholarship

Please note that you must satisfy the following conditions before your scholarship/fellowship will be finalized. Failure to accomplish # 3 and # 4 below will result in the withdrawal of scholarships and fellowships.

1. All scholarships and fellowships (except the Edward J. Romieniec Graduate Traveling Fellowship) will be awarded one-half of the scholarship/fellowship amount in the fall semester and one half of the scholarship/fellowship amount in the spring semester. You must be enrolled as a full-time student in the Department of Architecture and remain in good academic standing at Texas A&M University in order to receive the fall and spring scholarship/fellowship payments. Students graduating in December will receive only the fall semester payment (half the total scholarship/fellowship amount).
2. Students receiving the Edward J. Romieniec Graduate Traveling Fellowship may elect to receive full payment for travel.
3. You must write a letter of thanks to the donor prior to the banquet. DO NOT MAIL YOUR LETTER. Original letters must be submitted to Melinda Randle in the Department of Architecture office (Langford A411) by April 10, 2015, one week prior to the scholarship banquet. The Department will mail the letter for you. A picture of you accepting the scholarship/fellowship will be included in the mailing to your donor.
4. You will be required to attend the scholarship banquet on April 17, 2015. Students attending study away programs other than internships are exempt from attending. Students on internship are expected to attend if within reasonable driving distance. Written permission requesting absence from the banquet must be submitted to the Department Head two weeks prior to the event.
5. As a scholarship/fellowship recipient your dinner at the banquet will cost $20.00. If you would like to bring a guest, additional dinners may be purchased for $50.00 from Melinda Randle in the Department of Architecture Office. Payment for all dinners must be received by Friday April 10, 2014.

I have reviewed the scholarship criteria listed online at <http://www.arch.tamu.edu/undergraduate/scholarships/2/> to ensure my eligibility. In addition, I understand the conditions of the scholarship listed above.
