Terms of student loan agreement:

You are requesting an unsecured personal loan in the amount of..... This loan is a promissory note to pay the tuition costs associated with a Breyer State University (BSU) Bachelor of Science in Equine Studies degree or an Associate of Arts in Equine Business Management. As such, this personal loan has unique terms and conditions.

1. No funds will be issued to the student. All funds will be paid directly to HorseCoursesOnline.com for course tuition.

2. The student will pay the $150 one-time registration fee required by Breyer State University with the submission of the loan application. The registration fee is to be paid to www.HorseCoursesonline.com by credit card, personal check or money order. The first monthly loan payment will be due on the 10th of the month immediately following the date of the granting of the loan.

3. The borrower will make monthly payments in the amount of..... by the 10th of each month. A $5 late fee will be assessed for any payment not received by the 15th of the month. Course lessons and student/teacher interaction will be discontinued immediately if payment is not received by the 15th of the month. The student will be reinstated with the receipt of past due monthly payments.

The borrower must pay off the loan amount within the terms of the agreement (48 or 24 months), but is not required to complete all the credits necessary for graduation within that time frame. If after the retirement of the loan, the student has not yet completed the required courses for graduation, the student will remain eligible to enroll in courses at any time convenient until graduation requirements are met.

If the student has completed the required equine study courses prior to the loan retirement date, graduation and the awarding of the degree will be withheld until the remaining loan amount is retired.

4. The Bachelor of Science degree student will begin study and complete the following courses in this order: Equine Nutrition for Maximum Performance, Stable Management, Conformation for Selection and Performance, Bits, Saddle Fitting and Hoof Balance and the Business of Making Money With Horses. Once these first five core courses are complete, the student may enroll in Training Performance Horses as well as another course of his or her choosing. The student shall enroll in no more than two courses at any one time.

Associate of Arts degree students are required to complete these courses in this order: The Business of Making Money With Horses, Equine Nutrition and Stable Management prior to enrolling in the remaining required courses. Once the 3 core courses are completed, the student may enroll in up to two courses at one time.

The undersigned and all other parties to this note, whether as endorsers, guarantors or sureties, agree to remain fully bound until this note shall be fully paid and waive demand, presentment and protest and all notices hereto and further agree to remain bound notwithstanding any extension, modification, waiver, or other indulgence or discharge or release of any obligor hereunder or exchange, substitution, or release of any collateral granted as security for this note. No modification or indulgence by any holder hereof shall be binding unless in writing; and any indulgence on any one occasion shall not be an indulgence for any other or future occasion. Any modification or change in terms, hereunder granted by any holder hereof, shall be valid and binding upon each of the undersigned, notwithstanding the acknowledgement of any of the undersigned, and each of the undersigned does hereby irrevocably grant to each of the others a power of attorney to enter into any such modification on their behalf. The rights of any holder hereof shall be cumulative and not necessarily successive. This note shall take effect as a sealed instrument and shall be construed, governed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas.
