

NATIONAL OUTSTANDING ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL OF THE YEAR AWARD PROGRAM

A Program to Honor Assistant Principals in Elementary and Middle Level School Leadership

2013-2014 Application

The National Association of Elementary School Principals Foundation

~ PROGRAM BACKGROUND ~

The National Association of Elementary School Principals is committed to preparing assistant principals to step into the principal role. Recognition for the exceptional leadership of the men and women who are responsible for the day-to-day operations of PreK-8 schools instills pride in their accomplishments and reinforces their leadership in helping children develop a lifelong love of learning.

In addition to honoring assistant principals and their leadership, NAESP wishes to share their success by showcasing their best practices in a document for other assistant principals to utilize. A publication entitled "Top Tips for Assistant Principals" will be disseminated to all NAESP members either in print or electronic format. This practical document will be designed to represent the voices of assistant principals who have exemplified unique leadership in their schools. It will include all areas of discipline, success stories, tools, and practical solutions.

~ CRITERIA ~

- Applicant must be a member of the National Association of Elementary School Principals at the time of nomination.
- Applicant must be an active assistant principal at the time of nomination.
- Applicant must be an active assistant principal for at least two years.
- Applicant's school must be committed to excellence through programs designed to meet the academic and social needs of all students.
- Applicant's school must have firmly established community ties with parents and local business organizations.
- Applicant must be respected by students, colleagues, parents, and the community at-large.
- Applicant shows strong educational leadership by setting high expectations for school staff and students.
- Applicant must exhibit exceptional leadership in a particular school program and/or is heavily involved in finding a solution to a problem faced by the school.

~ PROCESS ~

Public school elementary and middle-level assistant principals apply for the award via their state association. It is anticipated that each state will honor its State Assistant Principal of the Year at the annual state conference or some other state event. In order to assist in this process, NAESP will provide a small honorarium to each state. NAESP will also prepare a Certificate to be presented to each state's nominee.

The 2013-2014 program will begin September 1, 2013, and be completed by June 30, 2014. To be eligible for this program, applicants must complete the NAESP application and return it to their state affiliate in a timeline established by the state affiliate. Awardees could be announced whenever the process is completed and NAESP will send the certificate at that time. All selected awardees must submit a labeled professional, digital, photograph (a "headshot" with a plain, color background) at 300 dpi to state affiliates once he/she is named. A roster of 2013-2014 award winners will be featured on the NAESP Web site.

The National Association of Elementary School Principals (NAESP) Foundation, founded 1982, is operated as the tax-exempt, charitable arm of the National Association of Elementary School Principals — a professional association serving more than 30,000 administrators and other educators in the United States and overseas since 1921.

The National Association of Elementary School Principals (NAESP), founded in 1921, is a professional organization serving elementary and middle school principals and other education leaders throughout the United States, Canada, and overseas. As a national organization, NAESP operates through a network of affiliated associations in every state, the District of Columbia, Canada, and overseas. For more information, visit www.NAESP.org.
