Hollis F. Price Early Middle College High School is an early college located on the campus of LeMoyne-Owen College. It is a Memphis City Public School. It is neither a charter school nor an alternative school for students with negative behaviors.

Students are enrolled in college classes as early as 1st semester 9th grade while enrolled in the traditional high school courses. All MCS district policies apply to this school, inclusive of the uniform policy.

All interested applicants must have the desire and commitment to excel. Therefore, applicants are mandated to read one of the two selected books: "Soul Surfer" by Bethany Hamilton or "Inventing Elliot" by Graham Gardner. Be prepared to summarize it during your required interview. If you wish to be considered, please sign below and submit your application by the due date.
