STVM Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) Policy:

Students wishing to use their own personal devices (smart phones, tablets, laptops, etc.) to access the STVM Networks (wireless and/or wired) and the STVM Google Apps for Education domain (including, but not limited to Gmail and Google Drive) must agree to and sign off on this policy statement. This statement must be signed by a the student and parent and returned to the school before a student's personal device will be granted access to the STVM network and STVM Google Apps for Education domain. Please return this signed policy to school no later than Monday, August 25, 2014.

A student connecting his/her personal device to the STVM Network and/or STVM Google Apps for Education domain agrees to the following:

- The device can be managed and remotely accessed by the STVM network administrators.
- The device can be remotely erased and reformatted by the network administrator to protect the privacy and security of the school's networks and the safety of the student and his/her information. This is especially applicable in the case of a lost or stolen device or a device compromised by malicious software.
- Students can be denied access to STVM/Google network resources at any time at a teacher or administrator's discretion.
- Students agree to use access to this technology responsibly, not violating any of the terms of the STVM Acceptable Use Policy, the moral and ethical teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and St. Vincent-St. Mary High School, and the school's policies on academic integrity.
- Students using technology to cheat by sharing answers, plagiarizing material, or compromising the security of assessments will be denied future network access and will be subject to disciplinary action.
- Any disciplinary action for violation of the policy is at the discretion of the school administration.

I have read and agree to the above policy.
