“Creating to Benefit the Community and Students”

---

The CBCS Legacy Scholarship was established by Christopher D. Lopez, Braxton Z. Jackson, Chase J. Daniels, and Sheldron L. Fulcher. The founders are all graduates of the White Oak High School Class of 2009.

MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of this organization is to provide students, with a concentrated focus on leaving a positive legacy on their community through service, with an opportunity to continue their education through monetary assistance. This organization also strives to guide students through their college experience to ensure and support the success and growth of the student.

THE LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP:

The Legacy Scholarship was designed to recognize a White Oak High School senior who has demonstrated their commitment to leave an LEGACY throughout the halls of the school and its community. In addition to providing a minimum $500 scholarship to a student attending an accredited college or university, CBCS Foundation is also committed to ensuring the success of its recipients on the collegiate level as it will facilitate and develop mentorship relationships with the recipients.

The selected scholar(s) will further strengthen and develop the following skills and attributes through CBCS:

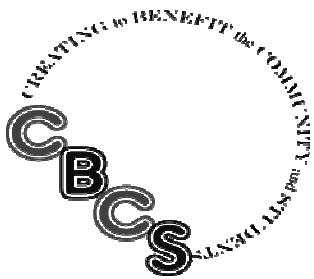

- Academic Readiness
- Community Involvement
- Leadership Skills

SELECTION CRITERIA:

The Selection Criteria for the scholarship award includes:

- Community/School Involvement
- Excellence of Character
- Leadership Experience and Potential
- Commitment to Personal Development
- Demonstration of Good Work-Ethic
- Determination to Succeed
