Horicon Marsh Education Center Summer Camps 2013

Welcome to the Horicon Marsh Education Center summer camps! This is the third year for summer camps at Horicon Marsh. We are excited for your camper to be joining us in the adventure and excitement of summer camp 2013.

We will be offering two themed camps for children each designed for a specific age. Camps will be held at the Horicon Marsh Education Center and campers will be able to explore and learn about the unique gem that is Horicon Marsh. Please see the descriptions for each of the summer camps offered and the specific ages for each camp. For questions or more information please call Liz Herzmann at 920-387-7893.

Dig Into Nature

For students entering 1st & 2nd grade
Tuesday, June 18- Thursday, June 20
9 am to 12 pm

Nature has more to offer than what can be seen with the eye. Come explore what lies beneath the surface of Horicon Marsh. Dig through mud, algae, rocks, pellets and more to uncover the truth about Horicon Marsh's secrets below the ground!

Fee: $50 per camper

Keepers of the Earth!

For students entering 3rd & 4th grade
Tuesday, July 16-Thursday, July 18
9 am to 3 pm

Do you wonder how Native Americans survived off the land without stoves, ovens, ipods and grocery stores? Come explore how Native Americans used nature to help them survive. Play games that taught vital hunting skills, make projects from natural materials and learn how you can be a keeper of the earth!

Fee: $75 per camper

Camp fees include cost of materials. A $10 discount will be applied to families with more than one camper. Members of Friends of Horicon Marsh Education Center will also receive a $10 discount.

Information packets will be sent prior to the start of camp. We hope to see your camper at the Horicon Marsh Summer Camps 2013!
