Study Proposal

Please provide a statement of approximately 1,000 words (250 words per section) describing your current practice or work you are currently undertaking on your course. The Study Proposal should also describe how you think you will develop a self-directed programme of practice and related research.

The following points are intended to help you think, research and structure essential areas of your study proposal. We understand that you are only at the beginning of a journey of exploration and do not expect you to have complete answers to all your questions. It is important to us that you examine your knowledge and experience with regards to your proposed project and can identify questions and areas that you do not know about. Naturally, we would like you to demonstrate how you intend to tackle those areas and questions. (Where appropriate use appropriately referenced text or images)

Introduction	Briefly describe your work, outlining recent developments, and identify those aspects you would like to take further at MA level.
Development	Describe specific areas, issues, critical ideas that are central to your area of interest
Methods	How will you go about researching your area of interest? Are their particular methods you will use e.g. drawing model making and photography
Resources	Are their particular resources or equipment that you need to access in order for you to successfully engage in your research

Criminal convictions

Do you have a criminal conviction that is not spent? Yes No

What does 'spent' mean? – See guidance.
