Dear New Troop 520 Scout and family,

Welcome!

If you are new to Boy Scouts, welcome to a new adventure. You will discover things about yourself you didn't know that you already knew. You will do things you never thought you could do. And when you look back, you will realize how far you've come.

If you are a veteran scout, but new to Troop 520, thanks for choosing to join us. We will count on you for leadership, for opinions and for ideas. We don't know everything there is to know about Scouting and your input is valuable to us. Speak up, and step up into a leadership role. You won't be sorry. We will give you the guidance you need and will abide by your decisions as long as they fit the model we have outlined.

To make your entry into the troop as smooth as possible, we have put together this information packet and checklist to guide you along the way. Please read through it carefully. Please note that all paperwork is due in full no later than the first Monday of February. This date will quickly approach, however our committee needs time to process and submit the applications to the council office prior to Crossover in March when your son will ceremoniously join Troop 520. We know this is time consuming but this is all information we need. We don't like paperwork anymore than you do.

A checklist of items due is included in this packet. Please review it carefully. If you have any questions or concerns, no matter how insignificant you think they might be, please contact any one of our leaders. It is our goal to make the enrollment process as smooth as possible for you to complete the paperwork as efficiently as possible so we can move on to the fun stuff!

We're proud you've selected us to help you help your son reach his full potential in Scouting. If you have additional questions after reading this booklet, please don't hesitate to contact the Scoutmaster or Troop Committee Chair or any other Committee Members or Assistant Scoutmasters. We hope you and your son(s) will enjoy Troop 520 and become active participants.

Yours in Scouting,

Troop 520 Committee

The History of Troop 520

Troop 520 was chartered in 1992 in full compliance with all of the requirements set forth by the Boy Scouts of America, a Congressional corporation, established in 1910. We started with just 6 scouts and now we have over 30 registered scouts. The troop is located in the Eagle Valley District of the Cascade Pacific Council. The troop maintains an excellent working relationship with the VFW Chartering Organization Representative, Louie Nuno, who monitors the Committee's work.

The guiding precepts of the troop are the Boy Scout Oath, Law, Motto and Slogan. Each Scout is expected to live by these standards. Each Scout learns these early in his advancement and is expected to be able to articulate them at any time when asked and most certainly at each Board of Review in his advancement.

Boy Scout Oath

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country
and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

Boy Scout Law

A Scout is TRUSTWORTHY,
LOYAL,
HELPFUL,
FRIENDLY,
COURTEOUS,
KIND,
OBEDIENT,
CHEERFUL,
THRIFTY,
BRAVE,
CLEAN and REVERENT.

Boy Scout Motto

Be prepared.

Boy Scout Slogan

Do a good turn daily.

The Mission of Troop 520

“Prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law”.

One of the ultimate aims of the Boy Scouts of America is to provide quality leadership for our nation. Therefore, Troop 520 is a "boy led" troop - meaning that the Patrol Leaders' Council (aka, "Green Bar", which is comprised of scouts elected by their fellow scouts into positions of responsibility) runs the troop and makes all important decisions. This means that the lessons learned by the Scouts through their advancement, working together in patrols and community service, are intended to prepare them for their roles as America's leaders in years to come.

We try to base all troop operations on the concept that the Scouts run the troop. This is done using the patrol method which is a group of 6 to 8 Scouts, led by the Patrol Leader and his assistant. New Scouts are assigned to a patrol. Together they do what is necessary on outings and in meetings to enliven the program. The Patrol Leaders Council is comprised of the Senior Patrol Leader, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader and Patrol Leaders. Together with the Scoutmaster in attendance they establish the program for the troop. The enrolled Scouts elect all officers of the troop semi-annually. The Senior Patrol Leader is elected with the concurrence of the Scoutmaster.

Adult leaders are confirmed by the Troop Committee. The leaders include the Scoutmaster Staff comprised of the Scoutmaster and the Assistant Scoutmasters. Additionally, the Troop Committee is made up of registered parents and other interested adults. The Scoutmaster Staff is responsible for mentoring the boys to provide an active, exciting program while providing opportunities for boy leadership to grow and watching out for health and safety related issues on a day-to-day basis. The Troop Committee ensures the permanency of the troop and exists to support the Troop's program through financial, logistical and other means.

Working closely with the Scoutmaster Staff, the Committee is responsible for ensuring adherence to the official Boy Scout Program, overseeing operations, supporting the Scoutmaster Staff, supporting the annual program, maintaining financial integrity, conducting the Boards of Review and resolving any difficulties that may surface.

Troop 520's Adult Leadership is dedicated to the scouting program. All are BSA trained, and some have completed BSA advanced leadership training. Each loves Scouting and brings a special talent or two into the troop. Many were Boy Scouts as youth. Most have extensive experience in outdoor skills such as camping, backpacking and hiking. All are dedicated to the personal growth of individual scouts, and to accomplishing the aims of scouting through application of the eight methods of Scouting.

Our Troops Adventures

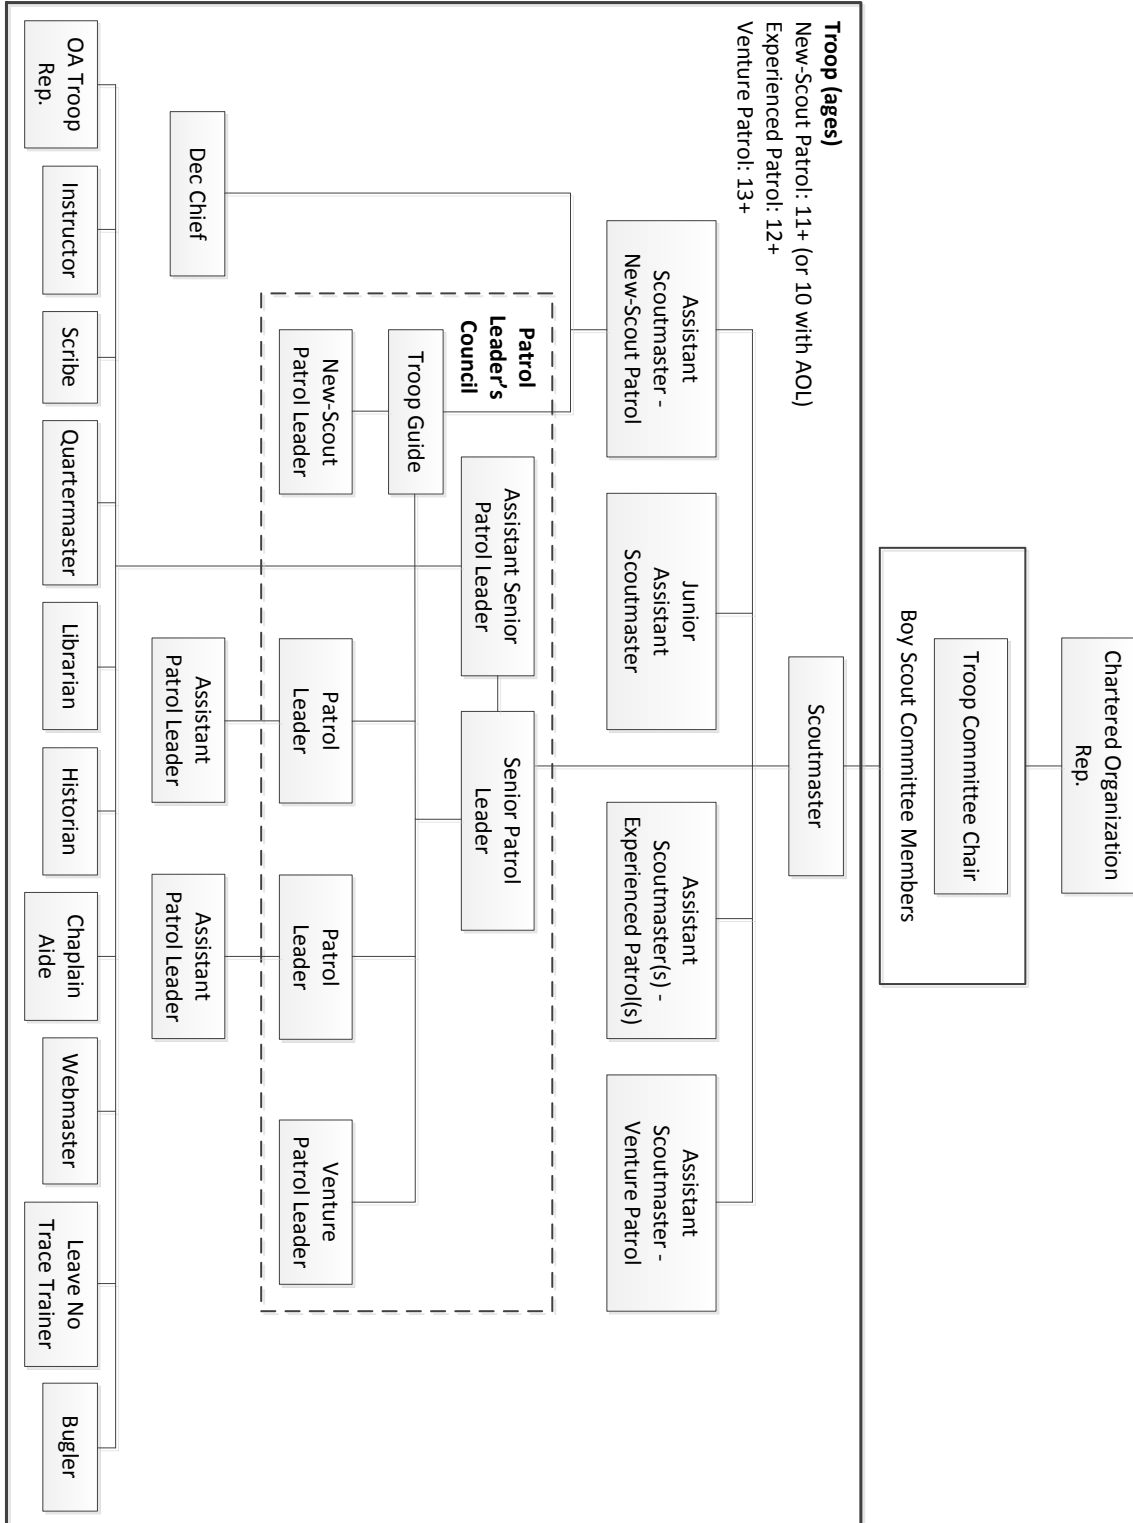

In Troop 520 we strive to keep busy with a variety of exciting events. Every January the Troop holds a yearly event planning meeting. In the past we've held this event at 5 Rock Ranch (previously Flying M Ranch) and Champoeg State Park. This planning session is usually an overnighter and is a great opportunity for the boys to decide what they want to do and places they want to go. Scouting is about adventure, trying new things and giving back to the community.

Here's a glimpse of our events calendar for 2014.

Month	Monthly Theme	Activities
January	Youth Protection, First-Aid, CPR	Annual planning meeting @ Champoeg w/ guest speaker from Oregon Search and Rescue Team.
February	Firearm Safety	Snow camping at Baldwin. Candy sale fundraiser begins. Firearm safety and training.

Gearing Up For Scouting!

To help you prepare for the fun and excitement of a Troop 520 event, we've made a list of some basic camping essentials. This guide should provide some basic information of the gear you'll need during your years as a Scout. Gear can be expensive. Our goal is to help you prioritize what you need for your first overnight outing and what you'll need over the long haul.

General Principles:

1. Cotton is bad
2. Light is good
3. Light is expensive
4. Scouts lose the small stuff

For camping cotton is bad. Cotton does not wick moisture, does not keep you warm when it gets wet and unfortunately does not dry out very quickly. Try not to bring cotton on a Scout outing (camping, hiking, etc). Yes this includes sweatshirts, T-shirts, socks, briefs, Jeans, etc. Think synthetic!

Go light! Keep the weight of gear in mind. As we will be doing a fair amount of hiking and backpacking over the next few years it's best to start getting low weight gear now instead of heavy gear now and buying another set later. Light gear tends to be more expensive so prioritize purchases on the important stuff first. Sleeping bags are usually the best place to start but are also the most expensive. In addition to thinking light weight, think of saving space. A good rule for backpacking... If you're going to bring it, it should have at least two uses.

Where did my ___ go? I know it's a shock but things tend to get lost. Knives, headlamps, compasses...anything small and expensive will be the first to go. We suggest not going overboard and buying expensive versions of anything that's likely to get lost, left behind, broken or misplaced.

What do I buy first?

If your first overnighter is in a week do you have to buy everything right now for it? Probably not. In fact, the Troop Scoutmasters and others probably have some of the basic gear you can borrow. Check before you buy. After your first outing you should plan on what to buy first. Below is a general guide.

1. Sleeping Bag
2. Sleeping Pad
3. Raingear
4. Anything missing from the Scout Basic Essentials
5. Hiking boots

THE SCOUT BASIC ESSENTIALS

Any Outdoor Activity

- Medicine (held by parent / guardian)
- Scout handbook
- Paper / notebook and pen / pencil
- Scout uniform
- Hat - important in tick season
- Insect repellent
- Sunscreen
- Camera
- Watch (cheap & waterproof)
- Cell phone for emergencies

Day Trip

- Sweatshirt and/or coat
- Swimsuit & towel
- Chair
- Fishing gear / Sports equipment
- Sunglasses, eye glasses, contacts
- Spending money

Day Hike

- Medical records
- Daypack, backpack, etc.
- Good walking shoes or boots
- Change of clothes (at least socks)

Campout Items

- Sleeping bag or blankets
- Pillow
- Air mattress, cot or sleeping pad
- Ear plugs
- Mess kit (plate, cup, utensils)
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Soap, shampoo, towel, washcloth
- Personal items and toiletries
- Toilet paper
- Warm and cold weather clothes
- Ziploc bags to keep things dry
- Survival kit
- Work gloves (for service projects)
- Rope, string, cord
- Bible or book of faith

Outdoor Essentials

- Small personal First-Aid kit
- Water bottle / hydration pack
- Flashlight with extra batteries
- Trail food
- Sunscreen
- Whistle
- Map and Compass
- Rain gear, poncho, etc.
- Pocket knife
- Matches / fire starters, Purell

Just as important as what you bring, is what not to bring. Many of these rules are BSA National Policy.

What NOT to bring

- Never bring any gun other than a squirt gun
- No BB guns, pellet guns, slingshots, etc.
- Never bring alcohol or tobacco
- Adults cannot use tobacco in the presence of Scouts
- Never bring fireworks, sparklers, etc.
- Never bring any pet of any kind
- Ask your leader before you bring an ax or saw
- CPC forbids sheath knives for Scouts
- Candy, food, snacks are not allowed in tents
- Ask before bringing any food items
- Appropriate attire and footwear are required
- Any open-toed shoe cannot be worn in camp
- Don't bring anything costly or irreplaceable
- No electronics, radios, CD's, TV's or DVD's. Cell phones are permitted.

Here are some guidelines for consideration when preparing for a camping trip or hike.

Summer Camping / Backpacking
Personal Checklist
(Please keep this list for future use)

- Backpack
- Sleeping Bag - lightweight; not bulky if you are backpacking
- Sleeping Pad - lightweight; not bulky if you are backpacking
- Tent - waterproof with a rainfly; seal seams on a new tent; lightweight if backpacking
- Rainwear - Coat with a hood and pants; or Poncho and gaiters(keep your pants dry) __ Footwear - Leather(seams sealed and waterproofed) or Goretex type hiking boots. Rubber boots if appropriate. Extra lightweight shoes for camp
- Pants and/or shorts if appropriate
- Shirt - lightweight, short and/or long sleeved depending on degree of sun protection needed
- Socks - 1 pair per day
- Lightweight jacket or sweatshirt for cool mornings and evenings
- Hat - for sun protection
- Complete change of clothes
- Water bottle, Canteen or hydration pack for water - filled if no water is available at campsite or on trail
- Personal Hygiene - toothbrush, paste, soap, wash cloth, etc.
- First Aid Kit
- Emergency Kit - space blanket, waterproof matches, tinder, candle, mirror, short rope, compass, whistle(plastic or metal with a cover), alcohol wipes, different sized bandages, etc.
- Medication if required (EPI pens, etc.)
- Flashlight (make sure batteries are strong) extra if lightweight or in a drive to campsite
- Pocket knife(if you bring a Tote'n Chip card)
- Compass
- Mess kit
- Day pack - if appropriate
- Plastic trash bags for dirty clothes
- Snacks for the trail - should be energy type foods, not just candy
- Small shovel and toilet paper
- Chapstick
- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent

- Totin' Chip card – if you will be carrying and/or using a knife, ax or hatchet

Winter Camping / Backpacking
Personal Checklist
(Please keep this list for future use)

- Backpack - line it with a plastic bag to waterproof it
- Sleeping Bag - 0-20 degree; or bring a liner or extra bag; or bring something like sweats for sleeping; lightweight and not bulky if you are backpacking
- Sleeping Pad - adds insulation to keep you warmer; not bulky if you are backpacking
- Tent - waterproof with a rainfly; seal seams on a new tent; lightweight if backpacking
- Insulating type underwear
- Rainwear - Coat with a hood and pants; or Poncho and gaiters (keep your pants dry) for rain as well as wind protection
- Footwear – Leather (seams sealed and waterproofed) or Gore-Tex type hiking boots. Rubber boots if appropriate. Extra lightweight shoes for camp
- Pants and shirt - wool or fleece are best: jeans will work if you stay dry and layer for warmth
- Socks - three to four pair, two pairs should be a wool blend
Tip: lightweight grocery store vegetable bags can be worn over your socks to keep them dry even if your shoes get wet.
- Gloves/Mittens - Gloves are more appropriate for heavier exercise; mittens will keep your hands warmer when you're not moving much or when the temperature is very cold (fleece or wool blends)
- Waterproof covers for gloves and mittens
- Warm coat, preferably with a hood
- Hat - a large percentage of your body heat escapes from your head
- Complete change of clothes
- Canteen for water - filled; dehydration is a problem even in cold weather
- Personal Hygiene - toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, wash cloth, small shovel & toilet paper
- Emergency Kit - space blanket, waterproof matches, tinder, candle, mirror, short length of rope, whistle, alcohol wipes, different sized bandages, etc.
- Medication if required (EPI pens, etc.)

- Fire'm Chit card - if you will be involved with fire of any kind
- Totin' Chip card – if you will be carrying and/or using a knife, ax or hatchet

Your Scout Uniform

Every scout in Troop 520 is expected to wear their class A scout uniform to every troop meeting and troop function. In some cases we may wear our class B scout uniform (troop t-shirts). We will always wear our class A uniforms and neckerchiefs while traveling to and from camping/overnight events. Your scout uniform should be clean and presentable each time it is worn. Class A and class B uniforms are to be tucked in neatly. A neckerchief and slide are to be worn with your class A uniform. Many of our scouts have made their own special neckerchief slides from various materials and are encouraged to wear them as long they do not serve as an injustice to the uniform.

Your class A shirt may be a long sleeved or short sleeved shirt. The choice is up to your individual preference. Below is a listing of everything you will need for your class A uniform and how you can obtain these items.

New Scout Checklist

- Long sleeve OR short sleeve khaki shirt (recommend short sleeve)
- Scout pants (recommend the zip-off pants/shorts combo)
- Neckerchief (troop provides at crossover)
- Neckerchief slide (troop provides at crossover)
- Activity t-shirt (Class B uniform. Troop provides at Chicken BBQ)
- Hat (baseball style recommended)
- Cascade Pacific Council shoulder patch
- Unit 520 numerals (troop provides at crossover)
- Patrol emblem (troop provides when patrol name is decided)
- Dark green shoulder loops (troop provides at crossover)
- World crest emblem
- Eagle Valley District patch
- The Boy Scout Handbook (recommend the spiral bound version)
- Boy Scout Handbook protective cover/sleeve (trust us, you'll want this)

- Be recognized as having the skills and education in the subjects for which they are to serve as merit badge counselors through vocation or avocation.
- Be able to work with Scout-age boys.
- The merit badge counseling relationship is a counselor-scout arrangement in which the boy is not only judged on his performance of the requirements, but receives maximum benefit from the knowledge, skill, character, and personal interest of his counselor.
- No individual may counsel a Scout in excess of five merit badges.
- Remember the Scout one on one policy (buddy system).
- Group instruction is only encouraged where special facilities and expert personnel make this most practical, or when there are only a few counselors available. However, this group experience should be followed by attention to each individual candidate's projects and his ability to fulfill all requirements.

Troop 520 Policies & Procedures

Uniforms:

Meetings - The Class A (tan) shirt is required. If the boys are coming from another event they are still expected to bring their scout shirt. Hats should not be worn inside the building, unless it is a scout hat and the boy is involved in a flag ceremony.

Outings - Either the Class A shirt and / or the Class B blue troop T-shirt. Whichever one is designated.

Court of Honor Ceremonies - The Class A shirt with the neckerchief and slide.

Parents: Please help your boys remember their uniform!

Training:

Youth Protection Training required every two years - Adults who accompany scouts on outings or work with them as merit badge counselors or at the meetings must provide proof of a valid Youth Protection Certification.

<http://www.scouting.org/Training/youthprotection.aspx>

Youth Protection for the scouts is given annually.

Junior Leader Training is given to all boys who take a leadership position within the troop. This is usually held within a month of elections.

Campouts/Activities:

Permission slips - Activity permission slips are created for each event and are controlled by the Outdoor Activities Coordinator. Sign-up opportunities are available at every troop meeting. Sign-ups for any event are due no later than Friday two weeks before the scheduled departure date. Most of our events have an unlimited amount of spaces available. However, some events do have a maximum number of attendees allowed and this information is communicated. Any scout or adult who wishes to sign up after this date will be put onto a stand-by list. If someone cancels, that space goes to the first name on the stand-by list. Parents, whether or not you can chaperone or drive, make sure to sign your name next to your scouts name indicating your approval.

Cancellations - Please let the Outdoor Activities Coordinator know if you and/or your scout cannot attend an outing which you have already signed up for. This affects the number of drivers, our total food expenses, as well as knowing if everyone is present before departing. In an effort to minimize waste due to last minute cancellations, the policy has been enforced that those who cancel the Monday prior to the event or later, will forfeit any prepaid camping money, and will be charged for their planned portion of food expenses from their scouts individual account, after the fact if their spot isn't taken by someone on stand-by. For exceptions to this policy, it is at the discretion of the Scoutmaster to determine if someone is entitled to a refund of their camping deposit.

Electronics - NO electronic devices are allowed on campouts with the exception of GPS devices. Mobile devices or personal music players with a GPS app are not to be brought to camp.

Behavior - The scouts are expected to follow the rules and do what is asked of them. If a scout's behavior becomes totally unacceptable, the parents will be called to come and get their son. No matter where we are at the time.

Meetings:

Time – The first Thursday of each month is a Green Bar meeting which begins at 6:30pm for all Patrol Leader levels. The third Thursday of each month is a Parent Meeting and also begins at 6:30pm. Troop meetings start at 7pm sharp. Please arrive 5 minutes before.

Scout Handbooks - The scouts need to bring their books to every meeting. This is their official record of advancement. If it's not signed off in the book, it's not done yet! If they are coming from another event they are still expected to bring their book.

Court of Honor - These are held every 6 months in April and October to acknowledge the boys achievements. They are held on standard meeting nights.

Attendance:

Expectations - The troop expects the scout to participate in meetings, outings, projects, etc. at a minimum level of 50%. This will affect his rank advancement after First Class when participation is a requirement.

Outings - A scout should be in attendance for planning sessions for an outing. One of these has to be the meeting previous to going, unless he is involved in a school or family function that is mandatory. In either case, he is required to call his patrol leader to explain why he won't be at that meeting.

Advancement:

Who signs off rank advancements requirements in the Handbooks...? The Scoutmaster, Assistant Scoutmasters, Patrol Leaders and First Class scouts as well as scouts who are cleared for particular skills by the Scoutmaster.

*Parents: You cannot sign off requirements in your sons Scout Handbook.

Scoutmaster Conferences - Before going to the Scoutmaster check with the Advancement Chairperson to make sure all dates and signatures match what is recorded. Ask the Scoutmaster for a conference a week ahead so he can plan his time at the meeting. The scout has to bring his book and must wear his Class A.

Board of Review - After the scout has completed his Scoutmaster Conference, ask the Advancement Chairperson if she or he could set up a Board of Review. Again, a weeks notice would be nice so that the Chairperson can make sure the necessary adults are there for the review. The scout has to bring his book and must wear his Class A.

Merit Badges - The scout needs to receive pre-approval from the Scoutmaster, and get a blue card signed by the Scoutmaster before beginning on a merit badge. Then he can check with the Advancement Chairperson to locate a counselor.

Service Projects - For projects that are not part of the troop program, the scout needs to receive pre-approval from the Scoutmaster before beginning on an individual project. The service project form, pre-signed by the Scoutmaster, is then signed by the person who the scout did the project for, then returned to the advancement chairperson to be recorded for the scout.

Eagle Scout Project - When a scout is ready to start on his project, even if he doesn't know what he wants to do yet, he should discuss it with the Scoutmaster, who in turn will have him contact the Troop Eagle Advisor.

Troop Financial Policy

The treasurer and committee members take the management and stewardship of troop monies very seriously. Troop 520 has Treasurer who is responsible for all troop finances with oversight by the Committee. All troop finance can be reviewed by parents and scouts at any time. From time to time the treasurer will ask committee members to spot check records. Currently the troop is using Quickbooks as our financial program.

Scout Accounts: Each scout has an account used for billing items and receiving payment for those items. Debits and Credits for camping activities will be applied to that account. Scouts may also make deposits into the account to accumulate funds for upcoming events. Scouts with accounts in arrears of more than $100 for a period of 60 days will not be permitted to participate in troop events that require a fee until arrangements are made with the treasure to balance the account. Statements are sent out via email on a regular basis. Parents can request a statement at anytime via email from the Treasurer.

Scout Dues: Dues are $36 per year for scouts. Dues are billed in and collected in January of each year. If a Scout joins mid-year dues are prorated.

Parent Registration: If a parents wishes to be a registered committee member they are required to pays dues. Yearly dues are also $24. The Scoutmaster, Assistant Scoutmaster, Committee Chair, Secretary, Activity Chair, Treasurer, Advancement Chair, Fundraising Chair are not required to pay dues. The Parent Patrol (aka, "Silverbacks") must pay their dues to be registered.

Campouts / Activities Payments – Our campout fees are calculated based on actual expenses. With the exception of Summer Camp, campout costs are determined based on actual totals for food and any reservations fees. Once the totals have been calculated that amount is divided by the total number of attendees. This payment will be automatically deducted from your sons scout account. A weekend campout on average cost between $25 and $35 per person. If the activity will cost more than $25 the Activity Chair will advise all scouts.

Cancellations - Please let the Outdoor Activities Coordinator know if you and/or your scout cannot attend an outing which you have already signed up for. This affects the number of drivers, our total food expenses, as well as knowing if everyone is present before departing. In an effort to minimize waste due to last minute cancellations, the policy has been enforced that those who cancel the Monday prior to the event planned departure date or later, will forfeit any prepaid camping money, and will be charged for their planned portion of food expenses from their scouts individual account, after the fact if their spot isn't taken by someone on stand-by. For exceptions to this policy, it is at the discretion of the Scoutmaster to determine if someone is entitled to a refund of their camping deposit.

Reimbursement: All reimbursement requests must use the troop's reimbursement form. Receipts must accompany the form. Troop expenditures other than campout / activity costs must be approved by the Scoutmaster, Treasurer or the Committee. The food budget for campouts is $3.00 per person per meal. If the designated campout Grubmaster requires money in advance to pay for the food and supplies, make arrangements with the Treasurer. If you spend less than the allotted amount, that money goes back to the Treasurer to be put into the troop account. Leftover food from the campout should either be divided up equally among the participating troop members.

Fundraising: It is important and expected that all scouts and scout families participate in fundraising activities. Fundraising allows our troop to keep scouting affordable for all families. Our biggest fundraiser is our annual Chicken BBQ held on Memorial Day weekend each year. Mark your calendar now!

Summer Camp: The average cost of summer camp is $300 per scout. A $75 deposit is due on February 15th to secure your space. This is non-refundable. Final payments are due April 15th. Cancellations between May 1st and two weeks prior to your camp date: a refund of all fees paid, less $75 per scout. Within two weeks of camp date, no refunds are given unless the scout moves out of council, there is a death or serious injury in his immediate family requiring his attendance, he himself becomes ill. The deposit is always non-refundable.

The "Scotty Account": The Scotty Account is available for scouts that may need financial assistance to participate in the various activities. Please contact the Scout Master, Committee Chair or Treasurer if your family needs financial assistance.
