The Hampden Community Council and the voters of your district thank you for participating in this forum.

I am not a career politician, not a name from the political establishment; yet I am well prepared and qualified to represent the district from 35 years of reporting on the issues, strengths, and problems of its people; now I'd like to help solve those problems. Many say they "grew up watching me." Well, I grew up while they were watching. We know each other. It's time to break away from politics as usual, and to end the war in Iraq. Vote for change, and I won't let you down.
