6. Tax Withholding Election

This section is not applicable to withdrawals from an Education Savings Account, or if you are not a U.S. person, including a U.S. resident alien.

Distributions from your IRA (excluding distributions from Roth IRAs) are generally subject to federal (and possibly state) income tax. Even if you elect in writing not to have federal and/or state income tax withheld, you are liable for payment of federal and state income taxes, if applicable, on the taxable portion of your distribution. You may also be subject to tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if your withholding and payment of estimated tax, if any, are not adequate.

Your tax withholding election will remain in effect on all distributions from this IRA account until you change or revoke it. You may change or revoke your tax withholding election at any time by submitting your request to Schwab.

A. Federal Income Tax Withholding You may elect not to have withholding apply, or you may elect to increase the rate of withholding. If you do not make an election, Schwab is required to withhold 10% for payment of federal income tax from your gross distribution.

I do not want federal income tax withheld.

I want federal income tax withheld, in the amount shown below. (Federal tax withholding must be a whole number, at least 10%, and not more than 99% when combined with state income tax withholding.)

10% Other percentage (specify _____%)

B. State Income Tax Withholding State tax withholding may be required from your distribution. In some cases, you may elect not to have withholding apply, or you may elect to increase the rate of withholding. In other cases, state tax withholding is not available. Refer to the State Income Tax Withholding Information sheet for specific information concerning your state's withholding rates.

While Schwab makes every effort to obtain information about state tax laws from sources believed to be reliable, Schwab cannot guarantee the accuracy or timeliness of state tax withholding information because state laws are subject to constant change and interpretation. We recommend that you contact your tax advisor regarding your tax withholding elections and to answer any questions that you may have regarding your state's withholding laws.

If you do not make an election, Schwab will apply withholding (if required) at the minimum rate based on your state of residency as determined by your legal address of record on your account.

I do not want state income tax withheld.

I want state income tax withheld at the rate of (specify _____%) (State tax withholding must be a whole number, at least your state's minimum tax rate, and not more than 99% when combined with federal income tax withholding.)

If you move between states with differing income tax withholding laws, Schwab will apply state income tax withholding (if required) at the rate you have provided above or at the minimum rate based on the laws for your new state of residency, whichever is higher.

7. Investment Advisor Disbursement Authorization (Optional)

Please initial below only if you want your IA to initiate distributions on your behalf as indicated in Section 2F(3) and Section 4. You must initial below (an "X" is not sufficient). You may revoke this authorization by notifying Schwab.

IA's authority does not include requesting disbursements to other Schwab accounts or other financial institution accounts not identified. Withdrawal of Assets

You may withdraw assets—funds or securities—from a Traditional/Rollover IRA, Inherited IRA, Roth IRA, SEP-/SARSEP-IRA, SIMPLE IRA or ESA at any time.

Taxation of IRAs

For more information, see IRS Publication 590 or consult a tax advisor.

In general, qualified withdrawals from a Roth IRA (including contributions and investment earnings) and distributions of the nondeductible contributions to a Traditional/Rollover IRA and Roth IRA are free from federal income tax. All other IRA distributions, including deductible contributions and investment earnings, are subject to federal (and possibly state) income tax at ordinary income tax rates.

Rollover Exception. If you make a withdrawal from your IRA, you have 60 days from the date of the withdrawal to roll the same assets back into an IRA (at Schwab or elsewhere) in order to avoid taxes and penalties on the amount withdrawn. The rollover must be made into the same kind of IRA (e.g., a distribution from a Roth IRA may be rolled over only into another Roth IRA, not a Traditional IRA). You may do this only once in a rolling 12-month period.

Early Withdrawal Penalty. If you are not yet age 59½, a 10% early withdrawal penalty applies to the taxable portion of distributions from the Traditional/Rollover IRA, Roth IRA, SEP-/SARSEP-IRA or SIMPLE IRA unless the distribution qualifies for an exception to the penalty. In the case of a SIMPLE IRA, the early withdrawal penalty increases from 10% to 25% for a distribution made within the first two years after the account is established.

Exceptions to the Early Withdrawal Penalty.

The 10% penalty described above will not apply if the distribution is:

- (1) used for qualified higher education expenses, qualified home purchase expenses, certain medical expenses, or certain health insurance expenses during periods when you are unemployed;
- (2) made after your death or disability;
- (3) paid in substantially equal payments over your life or life expectancy; or
- (4) paid on account of an IRS levy.

If you convert your Traditional/Rollover IRA to a Roth IRA, the taxable portion of your Traditional IRA is not subject to the 10% penalty regardless of your age at the time of the conversion.

Withdrawal of Excess Contribution. If you withdraw an excess contribution, you are required to file IRS Form 5329 with your tax return. (Please see the section on “Penalty and Tax Reporting” in the Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. Individual Retirement Disclosure Statement regarding taxation of excess contributions.)

Taxation of Education Savings Accounts. For more information, see IRS Publication 970 or consult a tax advisor.

In general, withdrawals from an ESA are free from federal income tax if they are not more than the beneficiary’s qualified education expenses for the year. All other ESA distributions are taxable, but only on the amount that represents earnings that have accumulated tax-free in the ESA.

Required Minimum Distributions. When you reach age 70½, you are required to begin taking distributions from your Traditional/Rollover IRA. This is not required for a Roth IRA. For more information, consult your investment advisor or IRS Publication 590.

Rollover Exception. If you make a withdrawal from your ESA, you have 60 days from the date of the withdrawal to roll the same assets back into an ESA (at Schwab or elsewhere) for the same beneficiary (or a member of his or her family who has not reached age 30) in order to avoid taxes and penalties on the amount withdrawn. You may do this only once in a rolling 12-month period.

Additional Tax. An additional tax will generally apply to a taxable distribution from an ESA unless it is made:

- (1) to the estate of a deceased beneficiary,
- (2) on account of the beneficiary’s disability,
- (3) because of attendance at a U.S. military academy, or
- (4) as a refund of an excess contribution (and earnings) made before the beginning of the sixth month after the year of the contribution.

If the additional tax applies, you are required to file IRS Form 5329 with your federal tax return.

Schwab MoneyLink® Accounts (if applicable). You authorize Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. to direct transfers of money electronically according to the instructions outlined on this form from your Schwab account to your bank or other financial institution account as designated above, and authorize that bank or other financial institution to credit and/or debit the same to such accounts, subject to the applicable terms and conditions contained in this form, your Schwab Account Agreement, and the Electronic Funds Transfer Terms and Conditions, which you will receive separately once you are enrolled in the MoneyLink Service. You acknowledge that Schwab may rely on the account information you provide and shall have no obligation to verify additional recipient account registration information.

This standing authorization will remain in effect on your Schwab IRA account until Schwab terminates the MoneyLink Service or has received notification from you (or any of the account holders or IA) of termination in such time and in such manner as to allow Schwab and your other bank or financial institution a reasonable opportunity to act on it. Written notification may be addressed to Charles Schwab & Co., Inc., MoneyLink Support Services, 101 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, CA 94104. You may also contact Schwab customer service directly at 1-800-515-2157.

Custodial Accounts. If this is a Custodial account, you acknowledge and agree that any funds or securities transferred out of the account, and into the account of the custodian or other account, shall be used or applied solely for the benefit of the minor.

Disbursement Authorization. If you have indicated on this form that your IA will have disbursement authority over your account, you authorize Schwab to accept instructions from your IA to transfer funds from your Schwab IRA or ESA account to the account at another financial institution designated above. IA’s authority includes giving Schwab instructions on your behalf and changing existing instructions for one-time (on request) transfers and recurring transfers, stopping transfers, and canceling the MoneyLink Service (and reestablishing it within 60 days of cancellation). IA’s authority does not include requesting disbursements to other Schwab accounts or other financial institution accounts not identified above.

Termination of Authorizations (if applicable).

The IA authorization you have granted in this form will remain effective until you or IA have revoked or terminated it by giving notice to Schwab, either by mail, telephone, facsimile, telegraph, messenger, electronic mail, voice mail or otherwise, provided, however, that Schwab reserves the right to require written notice or confirmation that such authorization has been terminated or revoked. You understand that you may revoke or terminate the authorization conferred herein at any time. Unless revoked or terminated by you or IA, authorization conferred herein to IA shall continue to apply to IA’s successors or assigns. Such revocation will not affect your obligation resulting from transactions initiated prior to Schwab’s receipt of such notice. You understand that if Schwab terminates its IA Service Agreement with IA, Schwab will not be obligated to honor any further instructions from IA; you will have exclusive control over, and responsibility for, your account; and unless Schwab notifies you otherwise, your account will become a Schwab retail IRA or ESA account subject to all terms and conditions applicable thereto, including fees and commissions for investment products and other services available to Schwab retail customers. Schwab will notify you as soon as reasonably possible after any such termination.

Indemnification for Authorizations (if applicable).

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Schwab, its affiliates and their directors, officers, employees and agents from and against all claims, actions, costs and liabilities, including attorneys’ fees arising out of or relating to (1) their reliance on authorizations granted in this form and (2) Schwab’s execution of IA’s instructions.

IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER: This summary is intended to provide a general statement of the rules affecting withdrawals from IRAs and Education Savings Accounts and is not intended to provide specific guidance. The rules affecting withdrawals from these accounts are complex and subject to change. Please consult your own financial, tax or legal advisor regarding the application of the rules regarding your particular situation before requesting a distribution.
