

Join a national network of Free Schools

SSAT is the hub of the largest, longest-standing network of education professionals in England.

We are already working with Free Schools to open up the many benefits of collaborating with wider local and national education networks.

Join SSAT to connect with Free Schools across the country, make sure your successes are celebrated and shared, and play an important role in leading the system.

Join SSAT and connect, share, celebrate, and lead

Networking that works

SSAT membership puts you in touch with schools which have led the way in delivering high expectations and outstanding results in similar contexts to yours.

When your school is a member, every member of your staff is too. Our active email forums give you and your colleagues a daily direct line to people who face the same challenges and share the same development priorities as you.

Meet, learn from, and share with, member schools on our national and regional events and programmes.

World-class CPD

We focus on delivering CPD that works. Tap into expert support and knowledge to hone your strategies to raise achievement and widen participation, at all phases.

Access best practice in teaching and learning, leadership, SEN provision, new technologies, and curriculum design.

Members get up to 33% off bespoke training, publications, programmes and events – including the influential SSAT National Conference.

Recognition for your school, staff and students

SSAT membership recognises you as an innovative school, committed to improving student outcomes. We celebrate your successes and achievements through our Educational Outcomes Awards and opportunities to share your work. Every student in member schools can take our Student Leadership Accreditation for free – formally recognising and celebrating their achievements inside and outside school.

“SSAT gives an all-year-round upper arm injection of a pretty powerful drug - lifelong learning and access to the finest minds from around the globe. It is pure adrenalin at times and a buzz.”

Free School membership of SSAT gives you...

Exclusive extras for Free Schools

A Free School principals' email forum

Half-day seminars to address your immediate priorities - members get one free place on any of these seminars, and can bring additional colleagues at a heavily-reduced rate.

Proposed seminar themes: governance, finance, special and alternative provision

A voice in the debate

Take part in SSAT's Redesigning Schooling campaign to ensure that the future of education is shaped by high-quality practice and research within the profession.

SSAT members will be sent one complimentary copy of each of the nine Redesigning Schooling pamphlets, being published throughout 2013-14.

A bank of advice

SSAT members get expert, impartial responses to news, policy, theory and research. Understand the implications of policy developments with:

• A fortnightly policy and curriculum radar.

• Half-termly subject radars and research radar.

• Termly academies and Free Schools newsletter and student impact radar.

• Tap into big picture insights and practical expertise. Adopt or adapt.

“SSAT is a fantastic resource for keeping aware of ever-changing political will, best practice, and the challenges that impact on our academies, students and communities. Membership is essential for school and academy leaders!”
