Title	Criminal Law: Petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus (revise Judicial Council form MC-275)
Summary	The proposed revisions to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (form MC-275) add information to the instructions to (1) indicate the number of copies that are required when a petition is filed in the Court of Appeal by a self-represented defendant, (2) clarify the number of supporting documents that must be filed in the Supreme Court, and (3) advise attorneys that the number of copies of supporting documents to be filed in the Court of Appeal may vary by local rule or court order in a specific case.

Discussion	The Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (form MC-275) contains an incomplete instruction regarding the number of copies required when a petition is filed in the Court of Appeal. Currently, the form provides that the original and four copies of the petition and one copy of the supporting documents must be filed.
	The number of copies required, however, differs for attorneys and self-represented defendants. Attorneys must file an original and four copies of the petition and one set of any separately bound supporting documents. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.384(c); 8.44(b)(3) and (5).) Self-represented defendants, on the other hand, need only file the original and one set of any supporting documents. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.380(c); 8.44(b)(2).)
	The proposed revisions to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus (form MC-275) add information to the instructions to differentiate the number of copies that are required when a petition is filed in the Court of Appeal by an attorney or self-represented defendant.

In addition, this proposal adds information to the instructions to clarify the number of supporting documents that must be filed in the Supreme Court and to advise attorneys that the number of copies of supporting documents required to be filed in the Court of Appeal may vary by local rule or court order in a specific case. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.44(b)(5).)

The proposed form revisions are attached on pages 3–8.

INSTRUCTIONS—READ CAREFULLY

- If you are challenging an order of commitment or a criminal conviction and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county that made the order.
- If you are challenging the conditions of your confinement and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county in which you are confined.
- Read the entire form before answering any questions.
- This petition must be clearly handwritten in ink or typed. You should exercise care to make sure all answers are true and correct. Because the petition includes a verification, the making of a statement that you know is false may result in a conviction for perjury.
- Answer all applicable questions in the proper spaces. If you need additional space, add an extra page and indicate that your answer is "continued on additional page."
- If you are filing this petition in the superior court, you only need to file the original unless local rules require additional copies.

 Many courts require more copies.
- If you are filing this petition in the Court of Appeal and you are an attorney, file the original and 4 copies of the petition and, if separately bound, 1 set of any supporting documents (unless the court orders otherwise by local rule or in a specific case). If you are filing this petition in the Court of Appeal and you are not represented by an attorney, file the original and one set of any supporting documents.
- If you are filing this petition in the California Supreme Court, file the original and 10 copies of the petition and, if separately bound, an original and 2 copies of any supporting documents.
- Notify the Clerk of the Court in writing if you change your address after filing your petition.

Approved by the Judicial Council of California for use under rule 8.380 of the California Rules of Court (as amended effective January 1, 2007). Subsequent amendments to rule 8.380 may change the number of copies to be furnished to the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal.

Supporting facts: Tell your story briefly without citing cases or law. If you are challenging the legality of your conviction, describe the facts on whice your conviction is based. If necessary, attach additional pages . CAUTION: You must state facts, not conclusions. For example, you are claiming incompetence of counsel, you must state facts specifically setting forth what your attorney did or failed to do an how that affected your trial. Failure to allege sufficient facts will result in the denial of your petition. (See In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304.) A rule of thumb to follow is, who did exactly what to violate your rights at what time (when) or place (where). (available, attach declarations, relevant records, transcripts, or other documents supporting your claim.)
Supporting cases, rules, or other authority (optional): (Briefly discuss, or list by name and citation, the cases or other authorities that you think are relevant to your claim. If necessal attach an extra page.)
