

Project Presentation Evaluation Form
Social Studies 4-6 – Weather Unit

Student's Name: _____

Project Element	Comments	Mark /5
Student has included valuable and relevant information about landforms in the presentation.
Student has included valuable and relevant information about the vegetation of the area being studied.
Student has included information pertaining to the climate of the area being studied.
Student has included information about the population of the area being studied, including the distribution of population.
Student seems to understand the concepts of vegetation, landforms, climate and population in relation to an area.		