The spousal or partner support provisions of Judgment (Family Law) (form FL-180) and Spousal, Partner, or Family Support Order Attachment (form FL-343) would be revised to reflect current requirements of Family Code section 4330.

To implement the mandate of Assembly Bill 391 (Stats. 1996, ch. 163), the Judicial Council revised form FL-180 to include the following admonition paraphrased from Family Code section 4330(b): "NOTICE: It is the goal of this state that each party will make reasonable good faith efforts to become self-supporting as provided for in Family Code section 4320. The failure to make reasonable good faith efforts may be one of the factors considered by the court as a basis for modifying or terminating spousal or partner support."

The Legislature amended Family Code sections 4320 and 4330 (Assem. Bill 391; Stats. 1999, ch. 846), deleting the requirement that the court make the above admonition when making an order for spousal support. Instead, the statute authorized the court to advise the recipient of support that he or she should make reasonable efforts to help provide for his or her support needs, taking into account the particular circumstances considered by the court under section 4320, unless, in the case of a marriage of long duration, as provided in section 4336, the court decides that this warning is inadvisable.

Judgment (Family Law) (form FL-180) would be revised to delete the admonition which formerly appeared on the form under item 4.n. The proposed revisions to Spousal, Partner, or Family Support Order Attachment (form FL-343) would include deleting the above-mentioned admonition on the second page of the form and revising section 3c. under a new heading titled "Judgment for spousal or partner support."

The proposed revised forms are attached at pages 2–5.

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.
