HOW THE MINNESOTA DATA PRACTICES ACT AFFECTS YOU:

In accordance with the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act (M.S. 13.43) Fillmore County is required to inform you of your rights as they pertain to the information you provide when filling out the Application for Employment. Under the Act, the following information is automatically available to the public*:

1. Whether you are a veteran
2. Relevant test scores
3. Your rank on our eligible list
4. Your job history
5. Your education and training
6. Your work availability

Your name is considered private until you become a finalist for employment by Fillmore County. You become a finalist when, and if, you are selected to be interviewed prior to being employed. If you are hired, the following additional information about you will be public:

1. Your name
2. Your actual gross salary and salary range
3. Your actual gross pension
4. The value and nature of your fringe benefits
5. The basis for and the amount of any added remuneration, such as expense or mileage reimbursement, in addition to you salary
6. Your job title
7. Your bargaining unit
8. Your education and training background and previous work experience
9. Your job description
10. The dates of your first and last employment with us
11. The status of any complaints or charges against you while you work for Fillmore County, whether or not they result in a disciplinary action
12. The final outcome of any disciplinary action taken against you as an employee of Fillmore County, and all the supporting documentation about your case
13. The terms of any agreement settling any dispute arising out of an employment relationship
14. Your city and county of residence
15. Your badge number, if any, which will not be your social security number
16. Your work location and work telephone number
17. Honors and awards received
18. Data which accounts for the individual's work time, except for reasons for use of sick or medical leave

Anything not listed above which is placed in your application folder or your personnel jacket (such as medical information, letter of recommendation, resumes, etc.) is made by this statute private information, and will not be shared with anyone but those members of our staff and appointing authorities or their designees who need it to process your application or file your personnel record or to conduct normal Fillmore County business. Also, the following agencies may be authorized by state or federal law to receive private information from your file in order to investigate specific complaints of employment discrimination: the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the state departments of Human Rights or Civil Rights. Otherwise, no private record of yours will be shared with any outside person or agency without your informed consent or a valid court order.

PURPOSES AND USES:

The information requested is used for the following reasons:

1. To distinguish you from all other applicants
2. To enable us to contact you when additional information is required, to send you notices and/or to schedule interviews
3. To enable us to ensure your rights to equal opportunities
4. To meet federal and state reporting requirements
5. To make processing more efficient

The data supplied by you may be used for such other purposes as may be determined to be necessary in the administration of personnel in Fillmore County and the policies, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

EFFECTS OF NON-DISCLOSURE:

You are not legally required to supply any of the data we ask for on your application, but if you choose to withhold it, your application will not be complete, and you may not be considered for employment. If you do provide the data, your application will be considered, and if you are employed, the information you have given us will become part of your employee record.

"public" means that it is available to anyone who asks to see it

"private" information is available only to the person it is about and to the staff who must use it in the normal course of conducting Fillmore County business.

I have read the information above on Minnesota Data Practices.
