

PRE-MARITAL COUNSELLING CLASS COVENANT

I agree to attend all ten sessions.

I agree to be on time for each session. I recognize that my lateness disturbs the group and harms my learning.

I agree to complete assignments between sessions so that I can grow and have meaningful interaction with the teaching material and with my fiancée/ fiancé. I will commit at least four hours outside the class to complete all assignments.

I agree that whatever other group members share in the group is to be kept confidential. This is an expression of love and respect for other members.

I agree to do all I can to create an atmosphere of trust in the group. When there are differences of opinions or experiences, I will seek to be non-judgmental and respectful.

I agree to be teachable, accountable and honest to the Holy Spirit, my teachers, mentor couple, and fiancée/ fiancé.

I agree to find a mentor couple within four weeks and to meet with them at least four hours a month.

I agree to let my teachers, mentor couple, and fiancée/ fiancé confront me in love so that I can grow.

I agree to be accountable to my mentor and supervisors regarding my purity goals.

If I do not keep this covenant I understand that the teachers, supervisor, or group will decide whether I can continue the class for any reason, my payment is non-refundable.

PRE-MARITAL COUNSELING:

The Nairobi Chapel highly esteems marriage. We believe that marriage is a precious gift from God and that is for life. Therefore it must be undertaken responsibly after serious thought and preparation.

Each person should complete a separate admission form and submit it to the church office, after which the couple will be interviewed by a pastor to consider their suitability. We ask you to answer all the questions with honesty and integrity. You may use a separate piece of paper if the space provided is not sufficient.
