TESTIMONIAL

My daughter has LOVED this course -- it was just what she needed to get things turned around. We saw a surge of confidence and an improvement in her ability to communicate with others.

The teachers were very compassionate about their work. They truly had each child's interest at heart. They treated each child as a valued student which helped the child learn.

ORDERING POLICIES

METHODS OF PAYMENT:

Check: Please make check payable to Slingerland® Institute or “SIL” and mail with order form to: 12729 Northup Way, Suite 1, Bellevue WA 98005.

Credit Card: To charge your order, please include the credit card number and expiration date as well as a daytime phone number and email address. We offer two secure payment processing options—Authorize.net or PayPal. All credit card orders must include the CCV or security numbers located on the front or back of the credit card. The CC orders must also be signed and include shipping and handling costs, plus sales tax, if applicable.

CREDIT CARD HOLDER INFORMATION SECURITY NOTICE:

To prevent unauthorized access, modification, duplication or disclosure of credit card information, please DO NOT USE FIRST CLASS MAIL or EMAIL to submit an order form with credit card information listed. You may submit any of the following ways

- 1) Fill out the order form and fax it to the Slingerland® Institute Office,
- 2) Call the office directly and provide the information via telephone or
- 3) Mail it via priority or registered mail or other traceable postage option.

We do not keep credit card information once an order has been processed.

Schools/Institution Only Invoicing:

All orders placed on behalf of a school or Institution require SIL's receipt and approval of a purchase order or school letter. SIL will notify the School/Institute via email to determine which document will be used to prepare an invoice and process payment. Upon receipt of the Customer's PO or letter, the Institute will submit the order for processing. The normal processing time then applies.

School invoices/POs are due and payable within 30 days. A late charge of 1.5% is added to any account over 30 days.

RETURNED ITEM CHARGE:

We charge a $50.00 handling fee for returned checks.

SHIPPING & HANDLING*:

Please allow a minimum of 7-10 business days for your order to be processed, shipped and delivered. All materials are shipped either FEDEX, UPS or USPS. Please provide your full street address as FEDEX and UPS will not ship to PO Boxes. Shipping and handling charges are set out on the order form and based on order total amount. See the table on the next page to calculate shipping charges on your order:

*The shipping prices shown are based on current shipping rates and may increase due to circumstances beyond our control.

Washington State residents are required to pay tax on all materials and shipping charges.

RETURNS AND REPLACEMENTS:

Please check your shipment upon arrival before stamping or marking the material. For defective materials or shipping errors, contact SIL to obtain a Return Authorization Letter upon receipt of your order. Any such errors must be reported within 30 days of shipping of the materials.

If for any reason besides those stated above, you are not completely satisfied with any SIL product, we will issue a full credit or replacement of the item. This guarantee is valid for one full year from the date of purchase, excluding blackline masters, which must be returned within 30 days. Refunds are not available on downloaded products.

All returned materials must be in saleable condition, free of markings, writing, stamping or shelf-worn appearance. All card packets or classroom sets must be returned as a complete set. Products not returned in this fashion will nullify the return and issuance of a refund, product credit or replacement. The items will be returned to the sender. Customer is responsible for paying all shipping costs.

A copy of the original invoice and a Return Authorization Letter must accompany all returns. Please contact SIL at 425-453-1190, by fax at 425-635-7762 or via email at mail@slingerland.org to obtain a Return Authorization Letter.

Four-Week Summer Session or In-Year Format♦

INTRODUCTORY COURSE

May cover a four-week (or six-week) period of intensive study. It offers training in the etiology and diagnosis of specific language disability (dyslexia) and provides training in the techniques designed for a preventive and/or remedial program for classroom use. These techniques, developed by Beth H. Slingerland as an adaptation of the multisensory approach originated by Dr. Samuel T. Orton and Anna Gillingham, are based upon sound neurological principles of learning. They give the child the tools needed to function successfully in all areas of language arts, whether reading, writing, spelling or speaking.

Course Content

- ⇒ Instruction in the introductory steps of handwriting, written language, decoding and reading comprehension
- ⇒ Knowledge of the historical and philosophical background of Specific Language Disability (dyslexia)
- ⇒ Phonic rules and their application to encoding and decoding
- ⇒ The neurology of language as a means of developing oral language skills
- ⇒ The history, philosophy and current research in the field of dyslexia
- ⇒ The relationship of curriculum and classroom organization to the language arts program
- ⇒ Practice with multisensory teaching principles through daily work with children

Tuition Cost: $2295 per enrollee

SECOND LEVEL CONTINUUM

May cover a four-week (or six-week) period of intensive study. After a brief review of the basics in the introductory course participants will be introduced to and practice more advanced techniques in the language continuum. The use of the dictation paragraph and the screening procedures will also be presented.

Course Content

- ⇒ Guided observation of the evaluative and prescriptive elements imbedded in the daily plan
- ⇒ How oral language skills relate to writing and reading skills
- ⇒ The vertical and horizontal use of the format for instruction
- ⇒ How to integrate a new learning throughout the format
- ⇒ Critical thinking skills needed for reading, writing and speaking
- ⇒ Current research in all aspects of dyslexia
- ⇒ How to administer and evaluate the Slingerland Screening materials

Tuition Cost: $2295 per enrollee

THIRD LEVEL CONTINUUM

Prerequisites: Years One and Two, permission of the instructor

A course designed for a limited number of participants wishing to become staff teachers in the Slingerland® Approach Training Courses. The content encompasses all learning of the introductory and second year courses as the participant learns how to organize, maintain and evaluate a summer session, its students and teacher participants.

Participants may also enroll in the Third Year course for more directed work with small groups of students. Daily lessons are developed for these students under the direction of a Slingerland Director.

Course Content

- ⇒ The use of the Slingerland® Approach with a classroom group of children
- ⇒ Evaluations of lesson plans, materials and teaching stations
- ⇒ Evaluations of delivery of planned lessons
- ⇒ Assisting in the completion of forms for the Slingerland® Institute
- ⇒ Preparation and delivery of lectures
- ⇒ Preparation of an orientation about dyslexia and the Slingerland® Approach
- ⇒ Individualized requirements assigned by the Director

Tuition Cost: $2295 per enrollee

= IMSLEC accredited classes

Introductory Class ■ Second Level Continuum ■ Third Level Continuum minimum 10 participants

◆ When necessary, sponsoring agencies will be responsible for instructor's transportation and housing.

Short Course Overview

The Slingerland® Approach Short Courses focus on specific components of the comprehensive training. They provide practical tools for teachers, parents, or paraprofessionals who work with children who need a multisensory approach to learning. No practicum is included with the short courses.

These courses are also approved for continuing education units through the University of San Diego. Approval can also be obtained through local universities. Additionally, the short courses are approved for clock hours through My247Ed.

All courses require a minimum of ten (10) participants. Course price includes a basic set of materials.

PRE-READING SKILLS 10-hour Short Course

COST: $375

Instruction based on the work of Beth H. Slingerland for professionals working with preschool through first grade students. The content of the course includes some precursors to formal reading: oral language development, phonemic awareness, and the sight, sound and form of each letter of the alphabet. These beginning multisensory skills can prevent failure and give children the foundation needed for future success with formal reading, writing and spelling.

Course content:

- The understanding of what children need to know before they learn to read
- The normal development of oral language
- Oral language skills – listening and speaking
- Phonological awareness activities in the classroom
- The sight, sound, form and key-word of each letter of the alphabet
- The major components of reading acquisition
- Current assessment strategies for beginning readers
- Indicators of reading problems and characteristics of language/learning disabilities

READING SKILLS 20-hour Short Course

COST: $795

Instruction in teaching techniques and background knowledge in the Slingerland® Adaptation for Classroom use of the Orton-Gillingham Approach. It is appropriate for all educational settings. The relationship of learning reading skills to the acquisition of oral language and its development will be explored. Multisensory techniques that begin with single units of sight, sound and feel and progress to larger units will be taught and practiced. These techniques include decoding skills, phrase reading, vocabulary development, reading with comprehension, and higher-level critical thinking skills, that lead to increased fluency.

Course Content

- Development of an integrated lesson plan based on current curriculum materials
- Practice with the Slingerland multisensory techniques
- Current reading research findings
- Instructional strategies that will increase comprehension and fluency skills
- The organization of the English language
- A systematic structure for decoding and vocabulary development

HANDWRITING 10-hour Short Course

COST: $375

Instructional techniques for teaching manuscript and cursive handwriting using the Slingerland® Approach. The teacher/participant will become proficient with both writing forms and will learn methods of presenting handwriting skills to all levels of students. While each person ultimately develops individual styles of handwriting, this course will show teachers how to make legible writing possible for all students. Teacher/participants will actively apply the Slingerland multisensory techniques in practice sessions.

Course Content

- The purpose of handwriting instruction
- The developmental stages of handwriting
- The ability to identify breakdowns in the learning process and develop prescriptive lesson plans
- Styles of letter form including manuscript and cursive
- Strategies for multisensory instruction of new letter forms and reviewing those previously taught
- Strategies for teaching students to copy accurately from far point and near point
- The beginning steps for putting handwriting to functional use

COST:
$375

PRE-READING SCREENING PROCEDURES 10-hour Short Course

An introduction to the Slingerland Pre-Reading Screening Procedures for Kindergarten and beginning First Grade students. The purpose of screening is to identify individual performances that indicate modality weaknesses that call for specific instruction to prevent early failure. Early identification and specific instruction can prevent academic failure and minimize difficulties in learning language skills.

Course Content

- The Slingerland Pre-Reading Screening Procedures
- How to use the Pre-Reading Screening for referral, remediation and lesson planning
- How paraprofessionals can assist in the screening and scoring process
- How the Pre-Reading Screening can reveal important information about learning patterns and school readiness
- How to identify strengths and weaknesses in language learning
- How these strengths and weaknesses impact reading, handwriting, oral and written expression and spelling
- How to compare auditory, visual and kinesthetic-motor performance

SLINGERLAND SCREENING PROCEDURES 10-hour Short Course

COST: $375

An introduction to the Slingerland Screening Procedures (forms A, B, C and D) for students. These procedures developed by Beth H. Slingerland help identify students with specific language disabilities. The sooner these children are identified the earlier remediation can begin. The tests also aid in identifying children whose current language difficulties may continue beyond periods of development or maturational lag and become persistent specific language disabilities in later grades.

Course Content

- The Slingerland Screening Procedures Pre-Reading through High School
- How to use the Slingerland Screenings for referral or remediation
- How paraprofessionals can assist in the screening and scoring process
- How these screenings can reveal important information about a student's learning pattern
- How to identify strengths and weaknesses in language learning for every child in your classroom
- How these strengths and weaknesses impact reading, handwriting, spelling, and written and oral expression
- How to compare auditory, visual and kinesthetic-motor performance

SPELLING AND WRITTEN LANGUAGE

Part 1 – 20 hours

Part 2 – 20 hours

Teaching techniques and background knowledge in the Slingerland® Adaptation for Classroom Use of the Orton-Gillingham Approach.

The historical and philosophical background of dyslexia and current research in the field of reading and written language instruction will be discussed. Language acquisition, language development and modality involvement of the dyslexic and non-dyslexic will be discussed and compared. Techniques and practice in the following areas will be covered: oral language, phonics and blending skills, written expression and integrated auditory approach lesson plans. Participants will actively apply the Slingerland multisensory techniques in practice sessions.

Part One Course Content

COST:
$795

- Knowledge of the historical and philosophical background of Specific Language Disability (dyslexia)
- The history and development of multisensory structured instructional techniques
- How to plan and integrate a language arts lesson beginning with the smallest unit and building to words and words within phrases and sentences
- Strategies for teaching encoding and spelling of regular and non-phonetic words
- Current research about oral and written language
- Instructional strategies to increase students' spelling and written language performance
- A systematic structure for encoding (blending) and vocabulary development

Part Two Course Content

Prerequisites: Part 1 or 19-day summer course

COST:
$710

- The organization of the English language - including root words, prefixes and suffixes
- Concrete instructional practices for teaching spelling rules
- How to develop a weekly integrated language arts lesson based on a dictation paragraph including practice, review and introduction of new concepts
- The application of more complex roots and affixes
- The use of words within phrases and sentences
- More complex phonograms and types of syllables

Consultation Sessions

Slingerland Trainers are available to develop programs to provide coaching, mentoring, and training follow up to support practitioners in the field. Call the office for more information.

Carol Murray Advanced Slingerland Courses

Presented as four separate 40 hour seminars during which participants learn to expand their work with Slingerland continuum students (of all ages and levels). Rationale for the application of advanced strategies and techniques are explained, demonstrated, and practiced. For example, the instructor “explains” and “demonstrates” each of several ways to expand Question of the Day to improve oral and written receptive and expressive language, including how to apply Blooms Taxonomy higher order questioning and thinking skills to improve reading comprehension. Participants are provided guided “practice” to become proficient with the expanded questions—and subsequently every section of the daily lesson plan.

Pre-requisite:

Two years of previous Slingerland training or the equivalent plus permission by the instructor.

Continuing education units are available for all three levels.

TESTIMONIAL

I am so awestruck by the work that so many people have done in this area. What really sells it all for me is that these Slingerland practices can (and should) be used in the General Ed classroom with all students. The multisensory approach really reminds me of Howard Gardner's theory of Multiple Intelligences - which I think is so important for teachers to be aware of. The way that children learn is not manufactured, it doesn't come out of a box, and therefore, the way we teach can't come out of a box either, not if we want our students to be successful.
