

Writers' FORUM

fiction competition

Want to see YOUR story published in Writers' Forum?

Three great prizes every issue
1st £300 2nd £150 3rd £100

All types of short story are welcome, be it crime, comedy, romance, thriller, twist in the tail, horror, science fiction, etc...

Every entry receives a tick-box rating

- Stories MUST be between 1000 and 3000 words.
- Documents must be printed on plain A4 paper with double line spacing and good margin widths. No handwritten entries.
- On the title page give your name, address, phone number, email address, story title and the number of words.
- Add a brief biography of yourself: age, occupation, family, writing career to date, ambitions etc..
- Reading fee is £10 (£7 to subscribers).
Cheques (in sterling only) should be made payable to 'Select Publisher Services' or fill in your credit-card details right.
- If your story is chosen we will contact you and ask you to send your story as a Word-compatible document (.doc or .rtf files but not .docx or .wps) attached to an email, along with a photo of yourself.

How to enter

Fill in the coupon, then post with your payment, large stamped self-addressed envelope and manuscript to:

Writers' Forum Fiction Competition
PO Box 6337
Bournemouth BH1 9EH

By entering, authors will have been deemed to agree for the story to appear in Writers' Forum and possible future Writers' Forum anthologies. Please note that we would like to use news of our winners for publicity purposes in national and local press, but entrants can opt out of having their names and photos published. The competition is open to all nationalities but entries must be in English.
