Supervision of the organization has changed hands and the availability of prior period info is limited. The 2007 Form 990 grossly understates the amount of donations received from the general public. It may not be possible to reconstruct this information. Although the organization has been in existence since 1991, tax returns filed prior to 2005 are not readily available.

At least 60% of the organization's gross proceeds are generated through public support, notwithstanding investment income used solely for charitable purposes. The majority of all work is performed by volunteers.

On this basis, and consistent with prior filings, the organization should be considered a public charity funded through donations.
