

Dear MIT Alumni and Friends,

Join fellow alumni on a small group tour to beautiful Eastern Europe. Your odyssey to this remarkable part of the world spans five countries—Poland, Slovakia, Hungary, Austria and the Czech Republic—and weaves together the area’s deep history with the monumental events of the 20th century.

Discover the charms of Budapest, Vienna, Warsaw, Krakow, and Prague and explore significant cultural, historical, and scenic sites along the way. Tour Vienna’s majestic Schönbrunn Palace; see Josefov, Prague’s historic Jewish ghetto; explore the unique Wieliczka Salt Mines near Krakow; and visit the concentration camps of Auschwitz and Birkenau. Traveling in a small group allows for unique flexibility and personal encounters along the way, such as a dinner in Bratislava at the restaurant of a local family and a private classical piano recital in Warsaw. Also, there is ample free time for independent exploration.

Space on this tour is limited so register today. If you have questions, or wish to make a reservation, call the MIT Alumni Travel Program at 800-992-6749 or email compass@mit.edu. You may also contact the tour operator, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc., at 888-370-6765.

Sincerely,

Melissa Chapman Gresh
