INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO THE EARMARKING OF CATTLE AND BUFFALO WITH REGISTERED EARMARKS

See Livestock Regulations 8, 10, 11, 25, 26, 27, 28

The First Schedule

1. Earmarks are allowed for use on one or both ears.
2. No earmark shall be made upon the ear of any stock if such stock are already earmarked (Livestock Regulations (27)).
3. All registered earmarks are, wherever possible, described by the code of letters as shown on the attached index.
4. All earmarks must be made by pliers and these marks are only for use in conjunction with the registered three-letter brand and locality for which they are registered.
5. To enable earmarks to be described, it has been found necessary to divide the two ears in six positions (two centre positions being withdrawn from further registration).
 1. Front or top of off ear.
 2. Point of off ear.
 3. Back or bottom of off ear.
 4. Front or top of near ear.
 5. Point of near ear.
 6. Back or bottom of near ear.

The diagram above shows the positions in the ears and as denoted by arrows, must be read around each ear from the head, commencing at the top of the ear.
