

Regulations for the Canadian Practical Nurses Registration Examination (CPNRE) Writing Centre

Candidates that engage in irregular behaviour misconduct, cheating and/ or do not follow an invigilator's warning to discontinue inappropriate behaviour may be dismissed from the writing centre and their exam fee will not be refunded. Additionally, your exam result may be withheld or cancelled. In addition, your regulatory authority may take other disciplinary actions such as denial of a license and/ or disqualification from future registration for this examination.

Irregular behaviours or misconduct include but are not limited to:

- Giving or receiving assistance of any kind;
- Taking the examination for someone else;
- Using prohibited aid such as cell/mobile phones, hand-held computers or other electronic devices, recording or photographic devices, watches, etc...;
- Bringing study aids (test preparation materials or study materials, textbooks, notebooks, classroom notes, etc...) to the writing centre or accessing or attempting to access such study aids at any time after the start of the exam including but not limited to washroom breaks;
- Seeking help in answering items (in person, by phone, text, by email, etc...);
- Engaging in disruptive disturbances or causing disturbances of any kind;
- Copying, producing, reproducing, removing, examination questions and/or responses (in any format) or taking notes about the examination from the writing centre exam room or outside exam room including disclosing exam questions or response in whole or in part in any form by any means (orally, in writing, electronically, on the internet, "brain dumping", "discussion boards" or otherwise such as but not limited to Facebook, twitter or other form of social media);
- Failing to follow invigilator instructions.

Personal items including but not limited to wallets, watches, purses, hats, bags, or coats are not permitted at your desk (see the Entry into the Exam Room Policy for the complete list of prohibited items). These items must be stored in a secure area designated by the invigilator. Personal belongings may not be accessed at any time during the exam.

I understand the provisions above and agree to comply with the Writing Centre Regulations for the Canadian Practical Nurses Registration Examination (CPNRE). I also agree to comply with the Entry into Exam Room Policy (see attached). My signature on this form constitutes my agreement not to copy, disclose, produce, reproduce, or otherwise engage in the publication of examination questions or responses and not to engage in irregular behaviour, misconduct, and/or cheating with respect to this examination.
