Health & Welfare Plan Fundamentals

A One-Day Seminar

May 14, 2009

This one-day program on the basics of health and welfare plans is designed for recent entrants to the employee benefits field and more experienced benefits professionals seeking to reinforce their skills and keep up with the ever changing environment of the industry. It is an excellent way for new hires and transfers to get up to speed on important benefit issues as quickly as possible.

Participants will analyze and discuss various health and welfare alternatives as well as recent legislation and new developments in the employee benefits field.

The one-day seminar is sponsored by the New York Metro Area Chapter of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists, a nonprofit organization that serves as an educational resource in the field of employee benefits.

For additional information, please call Arthur Grutt at (212) 695-7495 x14 or Randi Weingarten at (646) 452-1955.

For questions concerning payment of the seminar fee and confirmation of registration, please call the chapter business office. Telephone/fax (973) 448-0022 or e-mail to Silent@worldnet.att.net
