1. In accordance with Act No. 90/2012 Coll. on Business Corporations and Cooperatives (the "Business Corporations Act"), these Rules of Procedure and Voting Rules of the Ordinary General Meeting of Philip Morris ČR a.s. (the "Company") govern the manner of registering the Company's shareholders, the procedure of the General Meeting, the method in which shareholders exercise their rights at the General Meeting and the method of voting at the General Meeting.
2. For the purposes of these Rules of Procedure and Voting Rules, a "shareholder" also means a shareholder's proxy unless stipulated otherwise.
3. Should the interpretation of any provision of these Rules of Procedure and Voting Rules be unclear or should a situation occur that is not provided for by generally binding legislation, the Company's Articles of Association or these Rules of Procedure and Voting Rules, the further procedure of the General Meeting shall be decided on by the Chairman of the General Meeting in compliance with the principles of the legal regulation of joint-stock companies contained in applicable law.

Section 2

Registration of Shareholders

1. Registration desks are set up for registering shareholders in an attendance list and for issuing identification cards and voting ballots. By signing the registration card, the shareholders confirm that they were given voting ballots and an identification card with an identification number corresponding to the number on the registration card. If any of the shareholders loses their identification card, the registration desk will re-issue the identification card at the shareholder's request at any time during the General Meeting.
2. Shareholders' attendance will be registered throughout the duration of the General Meeting. At registration, authorised persons at the registration desks will verify the identity of the shareholders and their right to attend the General Meeting. Shareholders who sign the attendance list and do not express their will to end their attendance at the General Meeting by a written statement made at a registration desk are considered present for the entire duration of the General Meeting. If a person refuses registration in the attendance list, the fact of such refusal and its reason will be recorded in the attendance list.

Section 3

Rules of Procedure

1. The General Meeting is opened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by a member of the Company's Board of Directors who has been authorised to do so by the Board of Directors. This person shall preside over the General Meeting until the Chairman of the General Meeting is elected. Following the election of the Chairman of the General Meeting, the General Meeting shall be conducted by this Chairman.
2. At the General Meeting, the shareholders are entitled to require and obtain explanations in respect of matters relating to the Company and the parties controlled by the Company, should such an explanation be necessary for assessing matters on the agenda of the General Meeting and for the exercise of the shareholder rights at the General Meeting. Shareholders may request the explanations mentioned in the previous sentence in writing. The request must be filed after the invitation to the General Meeting is published and before the General Meeting is held. Shareholders are entitled to file proposals and counterproposals in relation to the points on the agenda of the General Meeting. Proposals submitted by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board are voted on first. If these proposals are not adopted or made, shareholders' (counter)proposals are voted on. Shareholders, members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board may raise a protest concerning a resolution of the General Meeting and request that the protest be recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting. If the recording of the content of the protest is not requested, the Minutes Clerk is not obliged to record the content of the protest in the minutes of the General Meeting.
3. The explanation may be provided in the form of a summary statement on several similar issues. It shall be deemed that shareholders have been provided with an explanation even if the relevant information (the supplementing explanation in respect of individual points on the agenda of the General Meeting) is published on the Company's website no later than on the day preceding the date of the General Meeting and is available to the shareholders for inspection at the venue of the General Meeting. If the information is provided to the relevant shareholder, every other shareholder may also request such information without having to follow the procedure applicable to the exercise of the right to an explanation described above.

4. Shareholders may also file their proposals in relation to the issues which are included on the agenda of the General Meeting before the invitation to the General Meeting is published. Proposals delivered to the Company no later than seven days before the publication of the invitation to the General Meeting shall be published by the Board of Directors, including an opinion of the Board of Directors, along with the invitation to the General Meeting. Section 362 of the Business Corporations Act shall apply analogously to the proposals delivered after this time limit.
5. At a General Meeting, a shareholder may file proposals and counterproposals in relation to matters on the agenda of the General Meeting. If a shareholder intends to file a counterproposal to any matter on the agenda of the General Meeting, the shareholder will deliver it to the Company no later than 15 calendar days before the date of the General Meeting; this shall not apply in the case of proposals for certain persons to become members of the Company bodies, which may be filed by the shareholders both before the date of the General Meeting and during the General Meeting. The Board of Directors must provide an opinion on each proposal or counterproposal of the shareholders. The Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders of the relevant shareholder's counterproposal, together with the opinion of the Board of Directors, in the manner stipulated by the Business Corporations Act and the Articles of Association regarding the convocation of the General Meeting. This shall not apply if the information is delivered less than two days before the date of the General Meeting or if the costs related to the information are in gross disproportion to the significance and content of the counterproposal or if the counterproposal contains more than 100 words. If the counterproposal contains more than 100 words, the Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders of the substance of the counterproposal and of its opinion, and shall publish the counterproposal on the Company's website.
6. Issues not included in the agenda of the General Meeting may only be discussed at the General Meeting or decided on if all shareholders of the Company agree.
7. Shareholders may file their requests for an explanation, proposals, counterproposals and, if applicable, protests either in writing on a comment slip or orally at the invitation of the Chairman of the General Meeting after proving their identity based on an identification card. Comment slips must contain the shareholder's identification number (as specified on the identification card) and the shareholder's signature. Shareholders must submit comment slips to the information centre. When submitting a comment slip, the shareholder must prove its identity by presenting its identification card.
8. The General Meeting's information centre will number the comment slips according to the order in which they are received and will hand them over to the Chairman of the General Meeting.
9. The Chairman of the General Meeting decides on who is entitled to take the floor. A member of the Board of Directors and a member of the Supervisory Board must be permitted to take the floor whenever they request this. If somebody disturbs the orderly conduct of the General Meeting, the Chairman of the General Meeting may reprimand this person and, if they fail to change their behaviour even after being reprimanded, the Chairman of the General Meeting may adjourn the General Meeting until order is restored.

Section 4
Voting Rules

1. Voting is performed by means of ballots, which the shareholders receive upon registration or, as the case may be, during the General Meeting based on the instructions of the Chairman of the General Meeting. Each time before votes are cast, the Chairman of the General Meeting will inform the shareholders of the resolution which is being voted on and which ballot should be used for this purpose. Each shareholder will indicate the relevant answer on the ballot by marking the chosen answer with a cross and by signing the ballot. If the shareholder shall use a substitute ballot or a ballot which the shareholder received during the course of the General Meeting based on an instruction of the Chairman of the General Meeting, the shareholder must also fill in a number of the ballot announced by the Chairman of the General Meeting. If using a ballot which the shareholder received during the course of the General Meeting based on the instruction of the Chairman of the General Meeting, the shareholder must also fill in its own identification number (as specified on the identification card).
2. Ballots which are not signed, ballots without a ballot number or with an incorrect ballot number and ballots containing no identification number or an incorrect identification number are invalid. Ballots which are torn, crossed-out, rewritten or otherwise invalidated (i.e. containing illegible or unclear information) will also be considered invalid. If a shareholder makes a mistake when filling in a ballot, the shareholder must ask a person charged with counting the votes (the "Scrutineer") for assistance. The shareholder may then correct the ballot in the presence of the Scrutineer and both of them must then confirm the correction by signing it, or the Scrutineer may give the shareholder a new ballot.
3. When votes are cast, the Scrutineers will collect the ballots from all the shareholders present. After collecting the ballots, the Scrutineers will immediately start counting the votes. As soon as they ascertain that the number of votes necessary for making the decision on the proposed resolution has been achieved, they will inform the Chairman of the General Meeting accordingly. The Scrutineers will then continue counting the remaining votes. The complete results are recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting and, possibly, announced during the General Meeting. A record of the General Meeting's quorum has to be made when votes are taken on each proposed resolution."
2. Point 3 of the agenda of the General Meeting – The Report of the Board of Directors on the Business Activities of the Company, the Report on Relations Between Related Parties and the Summary Explanatory Report concerning certain matters mentioned in the 2013 Annual Report, the proposal for the approval of the 2013 ordinary financial statements, the 2013 ordinary consolidated financial statements and for the distribution of profit for the year 2013 and retained earnings from prior years, including an indication of the amount and method of payment of dividends

5. Point 6 of the agenda of the General Meeting – Amendment of the Articles of Association of the Company, including the subjection (in Czech podřízení se) to the Business Corporations Act as a whole:

The Board of Directors of the Company proposes that the General Meeting adopts the following resolution concerning the amendment of the Company's Articles of Association:

"The General Meeting decides on the amendment of the Company's Articles of Association as follows: The existing text of the Company's Articles of Association (containing Articles 1 to 40) shall be fully replaced with the amended complete text (containing Articles 1 to 39) as submitted to the General Meeting by the Board of Directors of the Company. By approving this amendment of the Articles of Association, the Company also subjects itself to Act No. 90/2012 Coll. on Business Corporations and Cooperatives (Business Corporations Act) as a whole."

The main reason for adopting an amended complete text of the Company's Articles of Association is in particular the subjection of the Company to the regulation contained in the Business Corporations Act as a whole and the related adaptation of the Articles of Association to the new legislation effective from 1 January 2014. As part of this subjection to the new legal regulation, certain provisions of the Articles of Association have been amended in accordance with the new possibilities offered by the Business Corporations Act and with the Company's interest in modifying, for example, the number of members of certain of its bodies to make their activities more efficient.

The draft of the amended complete text of the Company's Articles of Association forms an integral part of the draft resolutions of the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company and is attached as Schedule 1. The purpose of the proposed draft of the Articles of Association is to inform the shareholders of the changes to be made to the Articles of Association (the underlined text is proposed to be inserted, the struck through text is proposed to be deleted); the marked changes are for ease of reference only and do not change anything on that the amendments of the Articles of Association are to be approved as a whole in accordance with the draft resolution.
