Spotlight on: Oakville Public Library's Digital Resources

From the brand new Zinio to language-learning apps and free music downloads, the library's collection of digital resources is exciting and ever-growing.

Zinio is a digital magazine service that offers OPL cardholders access to over 100 downloadable magazines via personal computer, tablet or smartphone. With Zinio there are no holds, no waiting and no limits – magazines can be downloaded instantly and they're yours to keep forever!

Freegal is a free, legal downloadable music service with over 3 million songs from the Sony Music Canada catalogue. With Freegal, you can download up to five songs per week with nothing more than your library card.

The best part – they're yours to keep.

Use our OPL to Go mobile app to search for titles, place holds and renew items from your mobile device. Our app connects you with our catalogue and lets you manage your account anytime, anywhere.

Visit www.opl.ca and click Digital Resources for more!

Gain exclusive access to issues of National Geographic Kids Magazine

200 National Geographic Kids books and 500 kid-friendly downloadable images. Learn about animals, the environment, culture, history, science and technology with this excellent children's resource.

Course availability can be viewed online or by telephone when you browse iris. Availability cannot be guaranteed on inquiries – only at time of registration. You can register online after the program start date, up to 50 % of the way through the course as long as the program still has availability. Iris registration will provide immediate confirmation of registration. All registration methods will receive a confirmation letter by mail within two weeks of processing registrations. The location, start date and time of the course will be included. Please check all details carefully, and call 905-338-4250 if there are any discrepancies, or if you do not receive this letter prior to the start date of the program.

Excellent programs can get cancelled because people wait until the last moment to register. All programs need to be cost effective and cannot run if there are not enough participants. Please register early to avoid disappointment. All participants must meet the course age requirements.

In the event that the course you selected is full, you may be placed on a waitlist and a waitlist confirmation will be mailed to you.

Payment:

Full payment of program fees must be submitted with your registration form. If paying by cheque, please make payable to 'Town of Oakville'. Iris registrations must be paid by credit cards – VISA, MasterCard or by using credit on your iris account.

We will try to ensure that the registrations are processed together for friends or relatives. Registration forms, individual cheques and/ or credit card numbers are required for each family in order to receive separate receipts.

Duplicate receipts will only be issued upon request and are subject to a $11.30 administration fee per request. An administration charge of $35 will be levied for all NSF cheques and returned payments.

Refunds/ Withdrawals:

Pro-rated credits or refunds/withdrawals can be requested

no later than one business day prior to the third class. You are also able to withdraw online from a program using iris, up to four days prior to the program start date. A credit will be placed on your account. Withdrawal and/or refund requests on or after the third class of the program will be processed for medical reasons only for the remaining classes of the program and must be accompanied by a Doctor's note. These medical requests will be pro-rated, but will not be subject to an administration fee.

Refunds or withdrawals can be made by calling 905-338-4250 between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm Monday – Friday. All requests for refunds are subject to a $11.30 charge per registration per transaction.

For Safety's Sake:

To ensure participant health and safety, please make program staff aware of any medical conditions or special needs. A participant profile – Special Needs/Medical form should be completed and sent to the Library or the registration section of the Recreation and Culture Department. Do not leave children unattended in or about the library premises. The library is a public place and children may be at risk in a public place. Library staff cannot be responsible for the safety or supervision of unaccompanied children. We are concerned about your child's safety. Please ensure your child's visit to the library is a safe and happy one.

Cancellation Information:

The Oakville Public Library reserves the right to cancel or alter any classes, time, costs or locations outlined in this brochure without notice, as required, due to a lack of registration, change of policy, or availability of facilities or instructors. Full refunds will be issued for Course Cancellations only.
