Preparer's Professional Status - Indicate any professional credentials held, or claimed to be held, by the return preparer. An Attorney is an individual in good standing with a state bar association. A Certified Public Accountant is an individual in good standing with a state board of accountancy. An Enrolled Agent status is granted solely by the IRS upon the individual's demonstration of special competence in tax matters, by written examination, and passing suitability requirements. A Payroll Service Provider is a third party paid by an employer to administer the employer's payroll and tax responsibilities. Select Other/Unknown if you are unsure of the preparer's status.

Information about the Tax Return Preparer - Provide as much information as you know about the paid tax return preparer or business.

Preparer's Identification Numbers(s) - If known, provide the tax preparer's Electronic Filing Identification Number (EFIN), Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN), and Employer Identification Number (EIN).

Section B - Complaint Information

Tax Period(s)

Indicate the tax period(s) of the tax return for which the tax preparer misconduct occurred. Most individual's tax returns cover a calendar year of 12 months, January 1 through December 31. For example, you may have a tax return that was prepared in 2013, but the tax year is 2012 because the tax return covered calendar year 2012. A business's tax return can cover a quarter or a full year. For example, you may have a Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, prepared for the period ending September 30, 2014.
