The information on this form is needed by the Social Security Administration to make a decision on your claim. While giving us the information on this form is voluntary, failure to provide all of the requested information could prevent an accurate or timely decision on your claim and could result in a loss of benefits. Although the information you furnish on this form is almost never used for any purpose other than making a determination on your disability claim, such information may be disclosed by the Social Security Administration as follows: (1) to enable a third party or agency to assist the Social Security Administration in establishing rights to Social Security benefits or coverage, (2) to comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (for example, the General Accounting Office and the Department of Veterans Affairs), and (3) to facilitate statistical research and audit activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of the Social Security programs (for example, to the Bureau of Census and Private concerns under contract to the Social Security Administration).

We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State or local government agencies. Many agencies may use programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal Government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it.

Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.
