Briefly list experiences and personal characteristics, which would help, identify your strengths in working with, and/or mentoring freshmen and transfer students and students from diverse backgrounds. (On hand-written applications, additional sheet(s) may be attached).

What hobbies, interests, skills, talents, or knowledge do you possess which might make you an asset to our program. (Additional sheet may be attached).

Why would you like to be a FSMP Mentor? (Additional sheet may be attached).

Being a mentor requires approximately 3-10 hours per week. Most of the time in this paid position will be spent in mentoring protégés. Some of the time will be spent in meetings, training, program planning, office hours, and paperwork.

If accepted as a mentor, I agree to:

1. Attend mandatory fall and spring training workshops.
2. Attend orientation workshops for new protégés.
3. Attend weekly mentor meetings.
4. Work with 3-10 protégés (as needed)
5. Attend, participate, and organize program workshops
6. Meet face-to-face with each protégé each week
7. Complete paperwork accurately and in a timely fashion
8. Notify the Faculty Mentor of any changes in personal and/or protégé information
9. Work in a cooperative manner with fellow staff members

In signing this application, you are indicating that you understand and can work within the above guidelines and that all information you provided is accurate.
