CCC Celt is a 501c3 non-profit organization created to build awareness and appreciation of the Celtic cultures. Its primary mission is to build a Celtic Library Collection, primarily at Bucks County Community College. This comprehensive collection includes over 3,000 printed volumes and 145 videos. It represents the histories, poetry, music, customs, language, archaeology, folklore, etc. of the Celtic nations: Brittany, Cornwall, Ireland, Isle of Mann, Scotland, and Wales. CCC Celt is passionate about Celtic cultures, and is building on its mission by offering scholarship assistance to an eligible applicant who can ably express in writing of high quality what he or she is passionate about and why this passion exists.
