

2012 SOFE CDS Scholarship Application

To qualify for a scholarship to SOFE’s Career Development Seminar (CDS), the applicant must be an insurance regulator and employed directly by a US state, US territory, or federal government agency (i.e. contract examiners are not eligible). The individual must be a member of SOFE in good standing. Evidence that the governmental agency will not pay the CDS registration fees must be provided. The scholarships are granted for the cost of the CDS registration fee only. All travel and hotel expenses are borne by the applicant. Applicants with the AES, AFE or CFE designation and first time attendees will receive priority consideration should there be more applicants than can be accommodated. Scholarship notifications will be sent by May 7, 2012 Applicants should wait until they receive notice on the results of the scholarship application before registering for the conference. Those approved for scholarships must then register for the conference by June 22, 2012 or forfeit the scholarship. APPLICATIONS ARE DUE BY APRIL 30, 2012.
