PERSONAL CREDIT APPLICATION

Important Information About Procedures For Opening A New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

IMPORTANT: Read these directions before completing this Application

- If you are applying for individual credit in your own name and are relying on your own income or assets and not the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit requested, complete only Section 1, 3 & 4.
- If this is an application for joint credit with another person, complete all Sections, providing information in Section 2 about the joint applicant and sign below. We intend to apply for joint credit.
