EXAMPLES OF IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTS
SOURCES OF VERIFICATION OF ALIEN STATUS

I-94

Arrival/Departure Record: Issued by INS to certain classes of aliens and non-immigrant aliens. The I-94 does not include an A-Number and will not contain a photograph. The expiration date is noted on the Form I-94.

Warning - A nonimmigrant who accepts unauthorized employment is subject to deportation.
Important - Retain this permit in your possession; you must surrender it when you leave the U.S. Failure to do so may delay your entry into the U.S. in the future. You are authorized to stay in the U.S. only until the date written on this form. To remain past this date, without permission from Department of Homeland Security authorities, is a violation of the law.
Surrender this permit when you leave the U.S.:
 - By sea or air, to the transportation line;
 - Across the Canadian border, to a Canadian Official;
 - Across the Mexican border, to a U.S. Official.
 Students planning to reenter the U.S. within 30 days to return to the same school, see "Arrival-Departure" on page 2 of Form I-20 prior to surrendering this permit.

- I - 151 Alien Registration Receipt Card: Issued by INS to lawful permanent resident aliens. This card is no longer issued. INS is conducting a program to replace Form I - 151 with the more recent green card Form I - 151. This program has been extended to March 20, 1966. INS will continue to honor the I - 151 cards in order to avoid confusion over employment rights and entitlement benefits such as food stamps for those lawful permanent residents who either have not yet applied for the new card or are awaiting receipt of the document. INS requests that workers urge alien recipients to apply for the new I - 551 green card as soon as possible. Individuals seeking to replace their green cards may be referred to the INS toll-free number, (800) 755-0777, for information on how and where to apply for the new card.

- I - 185 Canadian Border Crossing Card: Eligible Canadian citizens and British subjects residing in Canada may be issued border crossing cards to allow them to travel to the United States. A person who enters the United States using a border crossing card does not have permission to reside in the United States for more than six months at a time. The card is valid indefinitely. Sample card is not available.

Voluntary Departure: "Voluntary Departure" is a status that allows an alien to remain in the United States for either a specific or an indefinite period of time. The period of time given for voluntary departure varies. Voluntary departure can be granted by the INS before deportation proceedings have begun or by an Immigration Judge during deportation proceedings. A person who has been granted voluntary departure may be eligible for employment authorization.

How to Read an Amnesty Alien's I - 551

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA) created two "amnesty" programs to enable undocumented aliens to legalize their status. The section 245A program legalized aliens unlawfully in the U.S. prior to January 1, 1982. The section 210 program, also called the SAW program, legalized certain farm workers. Aliens who legalize their status under IRCA are issued I - 551 cards after final adjustment to lawful permanent resident (LPR) status.

Ordinarily, the I - 551 issued to amnesty aliens were a pinkish color and had no expiration date (the "old card" example below.) The INS then began issuing a salmon-colored I - 551 with the person's name, date of birth, alien number, and an expiration date. The salmon card expires 10 years after it is issued. After 10 years, the person does not automatically lose his or her status; instead, he or she must simply renew the card.

| A. "TEMP RES ADJ DATE" - month, day and year when the person became a temporary resident (date on the example is November 16, 1876.) This is backdated to the date the alien filed for temporary residency. Add 5 years to calculate when the disqualification for receipt of certain benefits ends. If there is not TEMP RES ADJ DATE line, the person did not get LPR status through amnesty.. | C. Data adjusted to LPR status -
 On new card: year, month, day (In example: May 8, 1990)
 On old card: month, day, year (In example: February 18, 1989) Use this date to calculate when the person will be eligible for naturalization. An LPR is eligible for naturalization five years after being granted LPR status (three years if married to a U.S. citizen.) For §245A amnesty aliens, this date is calculated from the date the alien applied for permanent resident status. For SAWs, it dates from either December 1, 1989 or December 1, 1990. The application for naturalization can be submitted three months before the five-year (or three-year) period expires. |
| B. Code that tells whether the person legalized status under the 245A or the 210 SAW program. 245A - codes W16, W26, or W36

U.S. Department of Justice

Immigration and Naturalization Service

District Director

300 North Los Angeles Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Dear

This refers to your Request for Asylum in the United States.

I have concluded, upon consultation with the Bureau of Human rights and Humanitarian Affairs, Department of State, that you have established a well-founded fear of persecution upon return to your homeland. Therefore, in accordance with section 208(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, your request for Asylum in the United States is granted as of Feb 02 1990.

Your asylum status may be terminated if it is subsequently determined you are no longer a refugee within the meaning of section 101(a) (42) (A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, or that you pose a danger to the community or to the security of the United States.

You are authorized to remain in the United States until FEB 01 1991 at which time you must arrange to be interviewed to determine your continuing eligibility for asylum. Employment is authorized during this period. If you plan to depart the United States, it will be necessary for you to obtain prior permission to return.

You may apply for permanent residence under section 209(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act upon being physically present in the United States for at least one year after asylum was granted.

Please keep this office informed of any change in your address.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Moschorak
