

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE PLAN AND RESULTS REPORT

(This form is protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended.)

BASIC INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

PART A - PERFORMANCE PLANNING (AI 63 Enclosure 3)

Within 30 days of entrance on duty or the start of the appraisal period, a performance plan shall be prepared on DD Form 2799.

Appraisal Periods:

GS-12 and below and FWS Employees: April 1 to March 31
GS-13 and above: July 1 to June 30

Section I - Identifying Information. Rating Official completes.

Section II - Performance Plan. Rating Official in collaboration with employee completes and forwards to Reviewing Official for final approval.

Section III - Performance Plan Signatures. Reviewing Official reviews/revises and approves performance plan, signs and dates and returns to Rating Official. Rating Official and employee sign and date. A plan is considered effective when all signatures/acknowledgements are acquired. Employee signature serves as acknowledgement of form content, not necessarily agreement.

PART B - EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT (AI 63 Enclosure 3)

Any time during the appraisal period Rating Officials and employees may identify training or developmental opportunities beneficial to the agency and the employee. Opportunities identified are not an employee entitlement or a management commitment and are subject to approval and funding availability.

Section I - Identifying Information. Rating Official completes.

Section II - Employee Development Plan. Rating Official in collaboration with employee completes and forwards to Reviewing Official for final approval. Changes can be made to this section any time during the performance period.

Section III - Employee Development Plan Signatures.

Reviewing Official signs form and returns to Rating Official. Rating Official and employee review, sign and date. A plan is effective when all signatures are acquired. Employee signature serves as acknowledgement of form content, not necessarily agreement.

PART C - PERFORMANCE MONITORING AND PROGRESS REVIEW (AI 63 Enclosure 3)

At a minimum, there shall be one documented progress review midway through the appraisal period. Employee performance relative to each critical element; changes in mission, responsibilities and resources; performance successes or deficiencies, and corrections shall be discussed and plans altered if required.

Section I - Identifying Information. Rating Official completes.

Section II - Progress Review(s). The Rating Official and employee are encouraged to complete collaboratively, however, employee self assessment narrative is optional. At discretion of Rating Official, multiple progress reviews can be documented throughout the appraisal period in the Performance Monitoring and Progress Review section.

Section III - Performance Monitoring and Progress Review Signatures.

Rating Official and employee sign and date. A review is complete when all signatures are acquired.

PART D - ANNUAL RATING OF RECORD AND PERFORMANCE BASED RECOGNITION (AI 63 Enclosure 4)

The minimum appraisal period is 90 days. At the end of the appraisal period, employee has 7 days to provide a self assessment narrative (optional), which will be considered by the Rating Official when preparing the summary rating. Within 20 days of the end of the appraisal period, the Rating Official shall compare employee performance against the established critical elements and performance standards; consider the employee's self assessment; rate each critical element; and assign a recommended summary rating.

Section I - Identifying Information. Rating Official completes.

Section II - Employee Self Assessment Narrative. The employee provides a self assessment narrative (optional).

Section III - Critical Elements Rating and Supporting Narrative. Rating Official considers performance during the entire appraisal period, the employee's self assessment, rates each critical element (U = Unacceptable, M = Met, E = Exceeded, NR = Not Rated) and prepares a narrative to support the critical element ratings. If a critical element is Met, no written narrative is required for that element.

Section IV - Summary Rating. Rating Official assigns a recommended summary rating (Level 1 = Unacceptable, 3 = Fully Successful, 4 = Exceeds Fully Successful, 5 = Exceptional).

Section V - Monetary Recognition. Rating Official recommends monetary recognition, if applicable, and forwards performance plan to the Reviewing Official, who in turn reviews and discusses with the Approving Official. Working in conjunction with the Rating Official, the Reviewing Official and/or Approving Official retain the authority to revise any part of the employee's recommended rating and/or monetary award.

Section VI - Performance Rating Signatures. The Reviewing Official and, if applicable, the Approving Official sign and date the form. The Rating Official reviews approved rating of record and monetary recognition (amount and type), discusses with the employee, and both sign and date the form. Employee signature serves as acknowledgement of form content, not necessarily agreement.

Section VII - Continuation Space for Documentation. This section can be used for additional narrative pertaining to any part/section of the form where space provided is insufficient. Part/Section being continued shall be annotated.

COMPLETED DD FORM 2799:

The Rating Official keeps a copy of the completed and signed Employee Performance Plan and Results Report, provides the employee a copy, and forwards the final in pdf format to Washington Headquarters Services, Human Resources Directorate, Labor and Management Employee Relations Division within 60 days from the end of the appraisal period for processing.

Forms should be sent to HRDPerformanceMgmt@whs.mil or sent on a CD to:
