

Answer to Landlord's Claim
Residential Eviction/Unlawful Detainer

Case Number:

In the District Court of (county): _____ County, Alabama

Plaintiff's First and Last Name
(Landlord)

v.

Defendant's First and Last Name
(Tenant)

Instructions to Defendant: Your landlord (the Plaintiff) is trying to evict you. The reasons for the eviction are on the Statement of Claim that were served or posted on your door.

If you disagree with the eviction, follow steps 1-5 below by the deadline.

- 1 Fill out and sign this Answer.
2 Make a copy of your Answer, and mail or deliver the copy to your landlord, or your landlord's lawyer at the address on the Statement of Claim by the deadline.
3 Fill out and sign the Certificate of Service at the bottom of this page.
4 Mail or deliver your original Answer to your county's District Court Clerk. The Clerk's address is on the Statement of Claim. If you mail the Answer to the Clerk, the Clerk must receive it by the deadline.
5 Keep a copy of this Answer for your records.

The deadline is 7 days after the date you were served the Statement of Claim.

If you answer by the deadline, the court will mail you a notice with the date of your trial. At the trial, you can present evidence and witnesses' testimony, and tell the judge your side. If you do not answer by the deadline, you may be evicted. If you do not answer within 14 days after you were served the Statement of Claim, the landlord may also be able to get a money judgment against you.

To oppose the eviction, fill out and sign below:

I am the Defendant in this case, and I disagree with my landlord's (the Plaintiff's) Statement of Claim. I demand that the landlord provide strict proof of the alleged claims.

According to the law, the Court should reject the Plaintiff's claims because (check all that apply):

- a. My landlord (the Plaintiff) did not serve me with a proper termination of lease notice before filing this case.
b. I did everything my landlord (the Plaintiff) required me to do to avoid eviction before the legal deadline.
c. I took the money owed to my landlord (the Plaintiff) by the deadline, but my landlord refused to accept it.
d. My landlord (the Plaintiff) accepted payment from me after sending me the lease termination notice. This means the landlord cannot use the lease termination notice to evict me.
e. The Summons and Statement of Claim were not given to me or any responsible person living with me. This means my landlord (the Plaintiff) cannot get a money judgment against me.
f. Other (explain):

I ask the Court to deny the eviction and/or to not allow a money judgment against me.
