NOTE: This form is to be returned with your registration material. Be sure to register for the Judicial Externship through website registration. Since this is a “By Arrangement” course, you must also enter the number of credits for which you are registering. If this form is used during the “Drop and Add” period, it is to be accompanied by an add slip with the credits for the course placed in the “By Arrangement” column. Failure to place the credits in the “By Arrangement” column will result in your not receiving any credits for the course.
