

San Juan County Museum Association Membership Form

This is an exciting time to be a member of the San Juan County Museum Association. We continue to celebrate many major accomplishments over the past years in our management, operation, and preservation of Salmon Ruins and the other treasures of the Four Corners, but there is still so much to do!

The San Juan County Museum Association manages and operates the San Juan County Archaeological Research center and Library at Salmon Ruins. The Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to educating the public about the preservation of archaeological, historical, and cultural resources in the Four Corners area. Your support is essential to the work and success of Salmon. With your help, we can preserve the past for the future.

I want to help support Salmon Ruins by becoming a member!

Your membership supports the:

- Stabilization of the Salmon Ruins
- Preservation of the Salmon homestead
- Expansion of our research library and archives
- Research and preservation of other local sites
- Updating displays and developing new exhibits

Membership benefits include:

- A 10% discount in our amazing gift shop
- Free admission to the ruins and museum anytime
- Our quarterly newsletter, the Outlier
- Discounted 'Journey Into the Past' tours
- Library privileges
