Creative enables organizations to increase their donor base, reach a greater public with their message, expand and strengthen their volunteer base, energize and equip their Boards, and serve their constituents more effectively. In 2010, KC Creative began an extensive process of building relationships with philanthropic individuals and charitable organizations, launched Project Jump Start beginning work on three pro bono video projects, provided creative work or consultation for nine local non profit organizations, and created a network of freelance artists providing work for at least ten artists.
