Notes for Hugh Quinn:

QUINN (From Dictionary of Surnames: Hanks & Hodges) Quinn: Irish, Anglicized form of Gael O'Cuinn 'descendent of Conn' a byname meaning "Leader or Chief". Variations: (O') Quin(e), O'Quyn. Quin is the name of an ancient Irish family whose forebears were once chiefs of the Clan Heffernan. One of their earliest recorded ancestors is Donogh Quin, living in 1551. They are unusual in being one of the few Celtic Families in the peirage, holding the titles Earl of Durraven and Mountearl.

Migrated from County Armaugh in Northern Ireland to America. Lived in Granville and Orange Co. in NC and then to York Co., SC in 1765. In Abstracts of Early Records of Laurens Co SC, 1785-1820 (f277) Deed Book G, p 189: 10/14/1791 - 10-13-1800, Hugh (X) Quinn of Yourk Co. to Robt. Allison for L15 stg, 100 a. part of 600 a.gr.2/28/1754 to John Layns (?), conv. to H.Q. by James Weed (or Week) by power of atty, b.en McCraries Line, Robt. Allison, Spencer Bobo. Wit: Henry Meredith, Aaron, Linch.J.Saxon JQ

Not sure about NC stuff...reported by Roger Cooper in Mississippi.

Information for all the following on all the Quinn's in this history was taken from Jefferson, St. Clair and Walker County censuses from 1820 to most recent. Also from research done by Mona Wamick of Decatur, Ga.; the two histories of West Jefferson compiled by Barry J. McCleney, M.D.; records of McKinley Quinn, i.e. Family Bible, Address Books and Christmas Card Lists; Marriage Records of Walker, Jefferson, St. Clair and Shelby Counties; Land Records (BLM); Ancestral Maps of Walker and Jefferson Counties; newly discovered Quinn cousins across the country via internet and other information galore from the Birmingham Public Library.

Payne 14 Jul 1841 in Jefferson County, AL by Nelson Skelton, MG. She was born 1826 in AL.

Notes for Anderson Quinn:

This may be the Anderson Quinn mentioned in the Toadvine Book or My Community. There was a report that Anderson Quinn entered 80 acres three quarters of a mile west of Praco. In 1860 he took 120 more acres in the same area.

According to Mona Wamick research Anderson was found on 1850 Walker Census with wife Sarah and 4 children, but also found on Jefferson 1850 Census with 1 additional child. (*I know they lived right on the line in Quintown...might be the problem. Census takers could have overlapped.) Mona stated that evidently Walker Co. census was taken early and Jefferson, late. The family was "still" in Jefferson Co., AL in 1860.

I took this information from the Mona Wamick research and also from McCleney's first book. Census for Wamick just went thru 1860 apparently so guess McCleney's was thru 1870 or later to get Robert and W.P. on.

I actually thing that W.P. is B.P. or Burrell Pinckney.

Marriage Notes for Anderson Quinn and Sarah Payne:

Marriage: 14 Jul 1841, Jefferson County, AL by Nelson Skelton, MG

Notes for LaVina (Viney) Quinn:
AKA "Vina" and "Viney" and LaVina

Notes for Isaac Hood:

The first of the Hood family in the West Jefferson area was Isaac Hood born in 1775 in Georgia and came to Alabama around 1823. Last appears in the census of 1860 at age of 85 in HH of _____. Can only surmise the relationship to this Isaac that married Lavina Quinn at this point.[Bells.FTW]

Notes for E.J. Quinn:

I don't know where E.J. came from, he just appeared on my list of children of Anderson and Sarah. He's not on Wamick's and he's not in McCleney's West Jefferson stuff. It's a mystery! But I'll leave him? here for now...not hurting anything I don't guess. Maybe he was visiting at census time.

- 53 vi. Melissa Quinn, born 1849.

Notes for Melissa Quinn:

On census spelled Millissa

- 54 vii. Hugh Quinn, born Abt. 1850.

Notes for Hugh Quinn:

This is probably the Hugh A. Quinn listed in the 1860 Alabama Mortality records as having died of Whooping Cough in May. (Apparently only lived 7 days).

Notes for Noah Quinn:

Don't know where I got birthdates of children. Mona Wamick says Caroline 1850, James 1859, William 1858 (from 1860 census).

1860 census reported Noah (38) was a farmer.

There was one person over 90 in his HH and they could not read or write.

Discrepancies in birthdates of children from myself, Wamick and McCleney.

Will recheck census.

He was listed as Noe Quinn in the census of 1860. He was also listed as being born in 1822 on that one. All other census records list him as Noah Quinn, born 1830.

Notes for Penelope McCarty:

Found birthdates of 1822 and 1832. Go figure.

Second Auditors's Office, Oct. 3rd, 1864

Note that on all three of the above documents the word "cancelled" is written across at an angle. Don't know what that means.

Notes for Jane "Jenny" B. Miller:

AKA as "Jenny". She applied for Confederate Widow's pension and was approved.

According to Wamick she was a Miller, but confederate application refers to her as Jane B. Miller and a Brasfield was her witness. Now maybe her mother was a Brasfield...hope Miller is right. :-) (McCleney's book shows her as Jenny B. _____ and Deanne Phillips wrote in Miller).

On the July 17, 1870 Census Jane was living in HH in Township16, Range 6 West, Jefferson County. In the neighborhood were Hoods, Skeltons and Mauldins and it looks as if Hugh Anderson's future wife, Mary Jane Mauldin lived just one door down. The Hoods lived between them.

Jane B. Miller had Leonard Brasfield as her witness on her Civil War Pension Application. Does this mean he is her father or brother and she married a Miller before William Quinn.?

71. Hugh Anderson⁶ Quinn (William H.⁵, Hugh A.⁴, John³, Hugh², John¹) was born 19 Dec 1850 in Alabama, and died 14 Mar 1929 in Birmingham, AL (Jefferson Co. or Walker County, AL). He married Mary Jane Mauldin 19 May 1872 in Jefferson County, AL, daughter of John Mauldin and Nancy Snead. She was born 15 Jul 1856 in Jefferson County, AL, and died 01 Jul 1947 in Birmingham, AL.

Notes for Hugh Anderson Quinn:

QUINN (From Dictionary of Surnames: Hanks & Hodges) Quinn: Irish, Anglicized form of Gael O'Cuinn 'descendent of Conn' a byname meaning "Leader or Chief". Variations: (O) Quin(e), O'Quyn. Quin is the name of an ancient Irish family whose forebears were once chiefs of the Clan Heffernan. One of their earliest recorded ancestors is Donogh Quin, living in 1551. They are unusual in being one of the few Celtic Families in the peerage, holding the titles Earl of Durraven and Mountearl.

On the 1860 Census, in HH of William and Jane B. (Jenny) (Miller) Quinn were Jane (31), Benjamin (10), HUGH A. (9), Sarah (7), George (6), Rhoda C. (5 mo.) I'm pretty convinced that this is our Hugh's family. Hugh was born Dec. 19, 1850 and the census was done in July, so he wouldn't yet be 10. They were living in Jefferson County in the Flat Creek area at this time. Hugh's mother, Jane, may have been a Brasfield (B. initial) as Leonard Brasfield was witness for her application for her Confederate Widow's Pension.

On the 1870 census of Jefferson County, there was a Jane Quinn listed as Head of HH. In the home were Jane (40) from Alabama, Benjamin (21), H. (Hugh?) (19), S.A. (17), G.W. (13), C. (11). (A different census also shows a Vina (8) in the HH. I believe this is correct as the first one was a typed copy and an error could have been made. I copied the 2nd one from the census on microfilm.) Anyway, this info fits with the 1860 one.

In the immediate vicinity of the Quinn HH were Skeltons, Hoods, Mary Jane's mother Elizabeth Mauldin, Mary Jane and MJ's brother George and brother JH, and other Quinns. Also Sneads and Vines. On 1880 census they were living in Jefferson County and Mary Jane's mother, Nancy Elizabeth Mauldin (age 47 at the time) was living with them.

In 1900 Hugh & Mary Jane's HH included "1 servant". He was a farmer and operated a cotton gin and a sawmill with sons.

On 1910 Census, Hugh, Mary Jane, Nannie and McKinley were living in Shelby County, Montevallo Beat.

The 1920 census shows that Hugh and Mary Jane were living in Shelby County on Ashville Road and by this time all the children were out of the HH with families of their own.

Went by Ambrose.

His father, Hugh, sent him to college in Tupelo, MS.

September 1898 moved to Old Quintown; 1906 moved to Oklahoma; 1907 returned to Quintown; 1907 built homeplace.

On 1900 census it's shown that his sister-in-law, Minnie Brasfield (b. 5/1881, age 15) was living in HH.

When his father Hugh died, in 1929, Ambrose was living in Quinton.

When they celebrated their 56th Wedding Anniversary (date) they still had their 3 children, 11 grandchildren 13 ggrandchildren and 1 gggrandchild. (From Bham News). Ambrose may be named after Ambrose Mauldin, Mary Jane's Uncle. Also, according to naming patterns of the day, the first son is named after the father's father. At this time (6/16/99) it is a pretty good bet that Hugh's parents were William Quinn and Jane Miller.

According to great-grandson, Dan Chandler, Ambrose and Anna had a home in the lower valley of Quintown that was called the "bottom land." (This house is called the "old home place".) The house is still there though it doesn't resemble what Dan remembers. Eventually their son Reese and wife Felma moved to Birmingham out by Central Park and Ambrose and Anna were no longer able to farm or walk up the hill to go to church or the store and here was no one to drive them so they moved into Reese's house. After they died, Merle lived there.

When her father, Hugh, died in 1929, Lula and Sol were living in Quinton.

Her death date may be 12/18/32 rather than 9/18/32.

He and his brother Ambrose operated a sawmill and also Quinn Brothers Mercantile. He is buried at Church of Christ Cemetary in Quintown. Was also reported to be a Justice of the Peace in Quintown for about 30 years.

When his father, Hugh, died in 1929, Evan was living in Quinton.

Also had Evan's death date as 7/12/1965. Check this.

*Information from "Journey Into the Past...a History of the West Jefferson Area by Barry J. McCleney, M.D.

Some information from 1910 census which causes a discrepancy on some of the birthdates, but I'm going with it. Other dates, i.e., Lula's birthday noted as 1906 may have come from headstone.

In 1910, Harrison (Verda) was living in Evan's household.

He married Buna Paralee Black 29 Jan 1899 in Walker County, AL, residence. She was born 12 Aug 1881 in Alabama, and died 07 Jan 1964 in Holdenville, OK.

Notes for Ira Clint Quinn:

Clint moved to Foss, Oklahoma (Washita County) around 1920. SS#526-26-6823, issued in Arizona. Residence zip code was 74825 which is Allen and/or Pontotoc Oklahoma. Mother said he lived in ADA, OK.

On the 1910 OK Census, they were living in Hughes County.

On the 1920 Oklahoma census, (Newberry Township) Clint, Buna and family were living in Hughes County, Ok. His kids listed were Homer, Howard, Virdo, Carl, Virga, Grover, Orval and Pauline. Wesley wasn't mentioned. Guess he was out of the house by then.

On the 1930 census, he was living in Turkey Creek Township, in Washita Co. Two of his sons, Wesley and Virdo were buried in Burns Flat Cemetary which is in Washita Co.

6/21/2003: Still don't know where I got Daisy.

May have died in Holdenville near Ruby and Homer. May have been in NH in Allen, Pontotoc County, OK.

Notes for Buna Paralee Black:

Believe Buna's family moved to Oklahoma as well. On the 1920 Census there was a family by name of Black who were from Alabama, living next to Wesley and his wife.

Notes for Daisy Quinn:

On the 1900 census, there was a very scrawled entry for a female that looked like it could be "Dasey", age 2/12 which would probably mean born around April or May. However, dates are off, or maybe Daisy and Wesley were twins and Daisy died. No one in family recalls a Daisy, but they do recall all the other children of Clint.

He was honorably discharged September 22, 1945. His military occupation was described as Airplane Armorer. He: supervised and performed first and second echelon maintainance on all armament and ammunition in aircraft. Periodically examined aerial guns and other aircraft armament and equipment. Installed armament and other equipment and checked their completeness. Removed and replaced bombsights. Inspected, disassembled, cleaned, repaired, assembled and made parts replacements to weapons.

Notes for Betty Ray Chandler:

Moved to Plantation Florida 8/1958.

Story sent by Betty Haywood, Ambrose's gr-granddaughter and Verna's granddaughter: Growing up I spent more time with Merle (Edna Merle Quinn...Reese's daughter) than I did with Fannie Rae (Merle's half-sister). That is I spent time at Grandma's and Granpa's (Ambrose & Anna). Merle and I would go up the hill to Reese and Felma's...we spent the night up there once or twice, I think, but am not too clear about that. Merle and I would sleep in the front bedroom and Grandpa and Grandma slept in the room next to it...it was a much smaller room. Grandpa snored and he exhaled in a shrill whistle. We would get so tickled that sometimes we laughed out loud and then Grandma would call out in her little shrill voice, "all right, you girls hush up and get to sleep". We would try because we knew that Grandpa would get us up at daylight. They had to get all the chores done before it got hot. We slept on a feather bed and we had to make it up and there BETTER NOT BE ANY WRINKLES IN IT ! She wanted it as smooth as if it were an innerspring. At least we didn't have to bounce a quarter on it.
