TY 2006 Reasonable Cause Explanation

Name: THE ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

EIN: 13-1659629

Explanation: The return was submitted properly on November 15th, 2007. The transmission ID is 11236920073195000010. The return was initially rejected because of XML errors that were a result of the RIA program. These could not be cleared in time to e-file, so RIA assisted us to FORCE FILE the return. It is our understanding that because of the XML errors, the IRS did not record the EIN, and the automated process to give Rockefeller 20 additional calendar days cannot kick in. We have been advised that this should not result in penalties and does constitute reasonable cause.

Form 2220

Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Corporations

OMB No 1545-0142

2006

See separate instructions.

Attach to the corporation's tax return.

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service

Name THE ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

Employer identification number

13-1659629

Note: Generally, the corporation is not required to file Form 2220 (see Part II below for exceptions) because the IRS will figure any penalty owed and bill the corporation. However, the corporation may still use Form 2220 to figure the penalty. If so, enter the amount from page 2, line 34 on the estimated tax penalty line of the corporation's income tax return, but do not attach Form 2220.

Part I Required Annual Payment

Table with 5 main rows and sub-rows (2a, 2b, 2c, 2d) for tax calculations. Includes fields for total tax, personal holding company tax, look-back interest, credit for federal tax, and required annual payment.

Part II Reasons for Filing- Check the boxes below that apply. If any boxes are checked, the corporation must file Form 2220 even if it does not owe a penalty (see instructions).

- 6 [] The corporation is using the adjusted seasonal installment method
7 [] The corporation is using the annualized income installment method
8 [x] The corporation is a "large corporation" figuring its first required installment based on the prior year's tax

Part III Figuring the Underpayment

Table with 4 columns (a, b, c, d) and 9 rows (9-18) for calculating installment due dates, required installments, and underpayment/overpayment.

Go to Part IV on page 2 to figure the penalty. Do not go to Part IV if there are no entries on line 17--no penalty is owed.

Part XV- Supplementary Information	Part XV- Supplementary Information	Part XV, LINE 2, SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION (a) We ask prospective applicants to determine if their organization's project aligns with the Foundation's programmatic goals by visiting www.rockfound.org Until mid-November 2006, applicants were invited to submit a brief letter of inquiry via an online form available on our Web site or to mail them to the director of the subject area of interest at The Rockefeller Foundation 420 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10018 212-869-8500 Starting in mid-November, the Foundation began to invite inquiries via a new portal on our Web site at www.rockfound.org, and began to redirect anyone who sent a written inquiry to that new portal Exceptions were made (and written applications reviewed) for anyone submitting an inquiry from an area where access to the Internet is inadequate, such as in parts of Africa (b) Until mid-November 2006, grant applicants were asked to submit a brief letter of inquiry, without attachments, in order for the Foundation to make an initial assessment of interest Beginning in mid-November, applicants were asked to fill in the on-line inquiry form on the Foundation's Web site at www.rockfound.org, in order for the Foundation to make an initial assessment of interest Throughout 2006, applicants to the Bellagio Study and Conference Center, Italy, were asked to apply online at www.rockfound.org (c) In 2006, there were no specific submission deadlines for the Foundation's programs, other than for the Bellagio program (d) The Rockefeller Foundation develops its programs-strategies and approaches designed to have an impact on a particular set of issues or challenges-through a consultative and collaborative process We engage a variety of groups, including subject matter experts, policymakers and representatives of local communities to fully understand a given challenge or opportunity, including the economic, political or social context in which it resides In the course of program development, the Foundation identifies and considers organizations that we believe are best positioned to implement defined components of a program This process helps determine the organizations that the Foundation will provide grants to, and we will then request project proposals from those organizations In order to focus and maximize the impact of our grantmaking, we rarely provide funding in response to unsolicited proposals As a matter of policy, the Foundation does not give or lend money for personal aid to individuals or, except in rare cases, fund endowments, or contribute to building and operating funds The Rockefeller Foundation supports work around the world to expand opportunities for poor and vulnerable people and to help ensure that globalization's benefits are more widely shared During 2006, the Foundation operated within the following program themes Creativity & Culture, Food Security, Health Equity and Working Communities A cross-theme of Global Inclusion supported, promoted and supplemented the work of these themes In addition, the Foundation supported the following three regional programs the Africa Regional Program, the Southeast Asia Regional Program, and the North America Regional Program Toward the end of 2006, the Foundation announced a new structure in which the Foundation's funding will be centered on time-bound initiatives, rather than by program themes The Foundation's current initiatives, as well as areas being explored for future initiatives, are described on the Foundation's Web site at www.rockfound.org, which is continually updated The Foundation also operates a conference and study program at its Bellagio Study and Conference Center in Italy
