Who Is J. Jeffrey Holland?

Animal Welfare Attorney J. Jeffrey Holland, Attorney at Law

Holland & Muirden has served as a special prosecutor for animal cruelty cases in communities across the State of Ohio. As long-standing members of the Animal Legal Defense Fund, we pursue a broad range of animal welfare issues, from veterinary malpractice, to estate planning for the care of a pet, to zoning issues relating to animals.

Jeff has represented many individuals with a wide variety of animal welfare legal issues. He has also represented a number of animal welfare organizations, including HSUS, the Animal Legal Defense Fund and humane societies in Allen, Ashland, Auglaize, Clark, Columbiana, Cuyahoga, Franklin, Fulton, Geauga, Harrison, Hocking, Holmes, Jackson, Jefferson, Lake, Logan, Lorain, Lucas, Medina, Miami, Montgomery, Morrow, Pike, Portage, Summit, Wayne, Wood and Wyandot Counties.

Jeff has served as special prosecutor for animal cruelty cases in over a dozen courts in Ohio for the past 18 years. He has conducted humane officer training for the Ohio Humane Agents Association and Ohio Federated Humane Societies, and has conducted seminars on animal cruelty law for the Ohio Veterinary Medical Association, Ohio State University, Ohio Dog Warden's Association, and the Montana Veterinary Medical Association. Jeff is also an adjunct professor teaching the Animal Law course at Case Western University Law School.

Jeff helped to draft S.B. 221, the first significant change in Ohio's animal cruelty law in over a hundred years. Jeff and his wife, Marjorie, live in Medina County with their 4 sons along with 5 dogs, 5 cats, 6 horses, chickens, fish and occasional foster animals.
